

BEN HARRIS

Born: N/A - Died: 1905

Chester Signal

December 7, 1905

Ben Harris, a sheepherder working near Chimney Rock coulee, died from exposure during the recent storm.

CARRIE MITCHELL

Born: 1897 - Died: August 23, 1905

Chester Signal

August 24, 1905

THE DEATH ANGELS VISIT.

It is with deep regret that we are called upon to record the death of Carrie, the youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs William Mitchell, which occurred yesterday morning at six o'clock, after a short illness, from diabetes. Aged 8 years.

For several weeks she had been ailing, but nothing serious was dreamed of, until about a week ago when her mother took her to Havre to consult a physician, who made the sad announcement that she could live but a short time.

Carrie was a bright little girl and apparently as healthy and happy as most children of her age, to see one so young cut down by the grim old reaper, reminds us that life is a frivolous thing and that sooner or later we must follow.

The funeral services will be held at the schoolhouse at 2 o'clock this afternoon, by the Rev. Mr. Colyn. Interment in new burying ground just east of town.

To the family we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

---

PRIVATE SAM ROSS

Born: N/A - Died: December 4, 1905

Chester Signal

December 7, 1905

Private Sam Ross of Company F
Twenty-fourth infantry, was killed by private Wm. Giles of Company
G, same regiment, in a drunken quarrel over a game of cards in a Havre saloon, Monday night. Both men were negros, from Fort Assin-niboine.

---

MRS. J.E. TROMMER
Born: 1870 - Died: November 20, 1905
Chester Signal
November 23, 1905

Mrs. Trommer, Dead.

A telegram reached here Monday night for J E Trommer, conveying the sad news of the sudden death of his wife, who was on a visit with her parents at Fairfield, Ia. Mr Trommer departed on Tuesday morning's train for Fairfield. Mrs Trommer was about 35 years old and leaves several small children. The Signal joins the entire community in expressing sympathy to the husband and little ones.