LUCILLE PEARL ERICKSON

Mucille Pearl Erickson died in Victory hospital at Stanley (Wis.) Tuesday, August 9, 1927. She had spent eleven years, four months, and eight days here on earth, when God called her to heaven, there to dwell with the Angels. She has finished her earthly labors and has gone to her Master to meet again her parents, relatives, and friends she has left behind.

We sympathise with her father, mother, sister Helen and brother James David, who survive her.

She was buried from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Frinock at Stanley. Her funeral was very large and the church was filled by relatives and friends. Her cousins acted as pall bearers, and the girls of Westland, where she attended school, acted as flower girls. Many beautiful floral offerings were received and a most beautiful memorial was given by an uncle and aunt, who donated a sum of money to an orphanage in memory of her. Words cannot express our feeling of sorrow.

All I can say, we will miss Lucille Pearl Erickson. Our faith, tells us she is happy in heaven.

The above was taken from a Medford, (Wis.) paper and sent to us by Mrs. P. L. Erickson of Thorp, Wis., but former homesteaders in the Joplin neighborhood.

STEPHEN S. IVES

Stephen S. Ives, son of Wilson and Elizabeth Ives, was born Jan. 10th, 1873 at New Boston, Mercer County, Illinois, and died from the accidental discharge of a 22-calibre rifle while going through barbed wire fence, at his home 12 miles north of Inverness, Montana, April 30th, 1927, at the age of 55 years, 3 months, and 20 days. He received his education in the New Boston school. After finishing school he learned telegraphy. He worked as operator and agent for about 20 years. On June 2th he was united in marriage to Fannie Lorraine Carnahan of Joy, Ills. They lived in Joy until 1907 when they went to Canada and located on a farm 5 miles from Nanton, Alberta. Here his wife died Dec. 10, 1910. In 1911 he moved to Montana where he settled on a homestead where he lived until the time of his demise, with the exception of the last six months when he made his home with his sister and family. He was one of a family of three children and the first to pass to the Great Beyond.

He leaves to mourn their loss one sister, Mrs. Nellie Peterson, of Inverness, Mont., and one brother, Claire O. Ives of Lordsburg, New Mexico, and a host of friends and relatives who were shocked to learn of his sudden passing.

Funeral services were held in the M. E. church at Inverness, May 7th Rev. Bickel officiating. The choir of the M. E. church sang the hymns, "Beautiful, Isle of Somewhere," "Face to Face," and "No Night There."

The body, accompanied by his brother, was taken back to New Boston, where he was laid to rest in the family lot beside his wife and parents.

God never does, nor suffers to be done

But what thou wouldst,
Could thou as clearly see
The end of all He does, as well as He.

THOS. LISKA COMMITS SUICIDE LAST WEEK

Thos. M. Liska, age 33, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Liska committed suicide at his home north of Chester last Thursday night by placing the end of the barrel of a high powered rifle in his mouth and firing the gun.

A few hours before, he had attempted suicide by cutting the arteries in his wrist. He then attempted to stop the flow of blood by binding his arm and walked to the Taplin farm. The doctor was called but did not go out until Friday morning as the condition of the patient was not regarded as serious. Mr. Liska was last seen alive Thursday evening by members of the Taplin family who had gone to his home to see him. He was found dead the next morning.

Thomas Liska was born in Olivia, Minnesota on December 8, 1894. Temporary insanity is given as the reason for his suicide. Funeral services were held at the Catholic Church Monday and interment was made in the local cemetery.

GEORGE MILLER, PIONEER OF CHESTER, FOUND DEAD AT HOME; BODY FROZEN

George Charles Miller, aged 55 years, was found dead on his bed at his home a mile north of town Sunday morning by Coroner Ainley and Deputy Sheriff Coon.

The body was frozen, and as he had not been noticed since Thursday or Friday morning it was supposed that death occurred on one of those days.

Truck drivers hauling grave from the pit to the highway state they saw a light in the house Friday evening, so death likely occurred Saturday.

Apparently Mr. Miller had been shelling dry peas from the pods, and as he probably felt suddenly ill he laid down on the bed. Death occurred without a struggle.

Jim Bozianos, a neighbor, had missed seeing George and going to the house looked through the window he saw the body and suspected death. He immediately came to town and notified the authorities.

Mr. Miller was born in Oldenburg, Germany in 1872 and came to this country in 1907. In 1909 he homesteaded his farm and has lived in this community since that time. Mr. Miller was a good workman, a good neighbor and had a host of friends who were shocked to hear of his untimely death.

Deceased leaves a brother, Henry, and a sister, Matilda Ramien in Germany. Funeral services were held at the M. E. church Tuesday, Rev. E. J. Jones officiating. Interment was made in the local cemetery.

CHARLES MULLIKIN PASSES SUDDENLY IN CHICAGO

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Mullikin received a message from Chicago Monday morning stating the sudden death of their eldest son Charles. The message gave no further information and the cause of his sudden passing has not as yet been learned.

In response to this sad intelligence the grief stricken parents, accompanied by their youngest son, Manson, of Inverness, left that evening for Claypool, Ind., the home of the bereaved wife and child, where the funeral services will be held.

The deceased was born in Tipton county, Indiana, on Sept. 19, 1890, and with his father arrived in Hingham in the spring of 1917. He was active in business here until the call for troops was issued by our government on entering the World war conflict, when he enlisted and served in the A. E. F., as truck driver. On his return in 1920 he was appointed postmaster of Hingham which position he held until the fall of 1922, when he resigned to accept a position as railway mail clerk between Chicago and Cincinnati. He was recently promoted to a responsible position in the Chicago terminal postoffice. He was married to Miss Hazel Ruth, of Claypool, Ind., in June, 1917.

The news of his sudden passing was received with a shock by the entire community, which extends its deepest heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved wife and child, and to the stricken parents and children.—

LOUIS MUMPHER, PIONEER ANSWERS LAST CALL

Last Sunday, the dead body of Louis Mumpher, aged pioneer of this section was found at his home about two miles south of town by Emmet Martell who had gone there to see him about certain business affairs. Coroner George Ainley was called immediately and the body was brought to Chester. Death presumably was caused by heart attack while he was asleep.

Louis Mumpher was born in York Springs, Pennsylvania, in 1850, but further than this, but very little is known about his life. He came to Fort Benton in 1867 and since that time, has been in northern and central Montana. He freighted from Fort Benton several years before he began ranching, and claimed the distinction of being the first man to swim a horse across the Missouri river at that point. In later years he has been engaged in stock raising and farming.

The only living relative known is Ed Mumpher. Funeral services were held here Tuesday at 12:30, Rev. Bickle officiating, and interment was made in the cemetery.

LOUIS MUMPHER, OLD TIME RESIDENT, FOUND DEAD IN HIS BED BY A NEIGHBOR

Chester, March 1.—The body of Louis Mumpher, pioneer settler of this section, was found at his farm home, about two miles south of town, by a neighbor who went to see him about business matters. Coroner George Ainley was called and the body was brought to Chester. From all appearances, Mr. Mumpher had died in his sleep, presumably from heart trouble. Little is known about him. No living relatives are known.

REV. O. S. RYGG

Born: 1857 - Died: May 12, 1927

Liberty County Farmer

May 13, 1927

REV. O. S. RYGG

The death of Rev. O. S. Rygg, at 5:15 o'clock last Thursday morning in the Kennedy-Deaconess hospital at Havre, was received with a shock by the many friends he has won during his five years of ministry on the Hi-Line. After spending the past winter with a brother, in California, he returned to Joplin early this spring prepared to continue his work as pastor of the First Lutheran church mission, much improved in health, and up to the time of his death his condition was not considered serious.

The deceased was born in Stod, Norway, in 1857, and arrived in the state of Minnesota in time to take part in the pioneering of that State. Following his graduation from a Lutheran theological college in St. Louis, Mo., he entered the ministry at Hendrum, Minn., and during the course of his many years in faithful service to God and Man, he also served as pastor in Brooklyn, N. Y., and at Eau Claire, Wis.

Following the death of his wife at Eau Claire, six years ago, he retired from active service in the ministry, but being unable to withstand inactivity, he, while visiting his sister, Mrs. E. Koefod, at Rudyard, was induced to again take up the work here in the mission field of the church.

The body was taken to Glenwood, Min., where he was buried from the home of a sister, last Sunday afternoon. The body was accompanied by R. W. Koefod, of nephew of the deceased.

He is survived by three sisters, and a brother: Mrs. E. Koefod, of Rudyard; Mrs. George Aal, of Glenwood, Minnesota; Mrs. Rev. Norman, of Ashby, Minnesota, and Martin Rigg, of Glenwood, California.

THOMAS OLNEY STRODE

Thomas Olney Strode, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Strode of Whitlash was born in August, 1899 in the state of Minnesota. At the age of 14 he became a victim of tuberculosis and underwent an operation at Havre to overcome the disease. Immediately afterward he spent two years in Kentucky for his health. He then returned to his home near the Hills where he stayed for about three years, but was he was forced to go to California where he stayed for nine months.

At the end of that time he felt that he had regained his health and returned home to stay until 1921 when he again became ill. He was taken to Great Falls for treatment, going from there to Arizona and California where he stayed for two years.

He returned to his father's ranch near the Hills in June 1925 and has been there ever since. He was ill for about five days preceding his death and passed away while sleeping about six o'clock Tuesday morning.

He leaves to mourn his loss besides his parents, one brother and two sisters. The many friends of the relatives of the deceased extend their sympathy to them in their bereavement.

Funeral services will be held in Havre Friday.

TOM STRODE, JR., DEAD; FUNERAL TO BE IN HAVRE

Havre, March 8.—Tom Strode, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Strode of Whitlash, died at the ranch home Tuesday morning, and James Holland Jr., undertaker left today to take care of the body and will bring same to the parlors in Havre.

Deceased was 27 years old and has been suffering from tuberculosis for years. He is well known in this section and has a large circle of friends.

It is expected that the funeral will be held in Havre, as two of the family are already buried here.

The father and mother have been spending the winter in California and have left there on the sad mission to bury their son. They expected to return home this week from their visit.

THOS. STRODE, JR. LAI D TO REST AT HAVRE

The body of Thomas P. Strode, Jr., was laid to rest Friday afternoon by the side of a sister and a brother in the Calvary cemetery at Havre.

Funeral services were held at the Holland and Bonnine chapel Friday afternoon, with the Rev. Conrad Wellen officiating.

A multitude of sorrowing friends attended the funeral from Havre and neighboring towns. Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Strode, Sr., arrived in Havre Friday morning from California, where they had been for a few weeks. Young Mr. Strode was 27 years old and had been ill for some time.

SWANK GIRLS LOSE LIVES IN WILLOW CREEK

Maud Virgel Swank, age 13 and Ruth Irene, age 8 years, passed to the Great Beyond last Friday afternoon, June 3. The younger one, Ruth, was playing along the banks of Willow Creek when on coming too close to the edge of the embankment the ground crumbled beneath her feet and she was precipitated into the water. Her older sister lost her life in an attempted rescue. Their brother John, who was working near by succeeded in getting the younger sister from the water but life was extinct. The body of the older one was not recovered until after the younger one. Valiant efforts were made to bring back life to both children but without avail.

Maud, the elder, was born on February 2, 1914 at the Swank farm home southeast of Chester and Ruth was born September 3, 1918. They leave to mourn their untimely passing their father and mother, three sisters and five brothers.

This catastrophe marks the third death by drowning in the family, and one other by accident in a field.

TWO CHILDREN DROWN IN CREEK AT CHESTER

Maude, 12, and Ruth, 8, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swank, were drowned in Cottonwood creek at Chester at 3 p. m., Friday. Ruth fell in while playing near the bank and Maude tried to rescue her. The water is extremely high and the current swift and treacherous. Heroic efforts were made to resuscitate both children but without avail.

Double funeral services were held from the Woodman hall Sunday afternoon, which was filled with sorrowing friends of the bereaved family.

Rev. G. B. Nye preached a fitting sermon and the choir sang. Interment was made in the Chester cemetery.

GRIM REAPER CLAIMS
MRS. WARREN YOUNG

The community was saddened on Monday when word was brought to town that Mrs. Warren Young had died at 4:3 p. m. Sunday at her home about 18 miles north of Joplin. Mrs. Young had been suffering from pluersy for some time passed, having spent some time in a Havre hospital. It was believed that she was gaining some in her fight against the disease, but these hopes were in vain.

The funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church here, Monday afternoon, Rev. O. S. Rygg conducting the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Young came here in 1910, settling on their present farm as a homestead. Mrs. Young was born in Illinois, 47 years ago.

The sympathy of the entire community is with Mr. Young in his sad bereavement.
