DEDICATED TO
MARGARET ANNA "PEG" COOMES COLE

The following poem was taken from Peg's genealogy books and written by her.

These pages for history,
For descendants of those who'll come after me.
Of ancestors who now all are gone.
Where God called them, to the great beyond.
This history I could never have done alone.
I am thankful to those who helped me along.
To all those who helped I am grateful today.
And for God's blessing on them I pray.
Now I am hoping that someone with our family history will carry on. . .
When my ancestors are laid in that promised land the great beyond.
Margaret "Peg" Cole

This poem was read at "Peg's funeral by her grandson Tim Cole.

MARGARET COLE

Margaret Anna "Peg" Coomes was born on May 17, 1905 at St. Louis, MO. Her parents were Lilly Clements and James F. Coomes, and she was one of two children. Her father died when she was an infant. Her mother later married a gentleman named Wolff and they came to his homestead south of Gildford in 1915. Peg attended the Kansas Valley Country School near the farm and transferred to St. Vincent's Academy in Helena. She graduated from Havre High School in 1925.

On March 1st of that same year she married Edward M. Cole in Havre. They lived at Fort Assiniboine for over a year, then moved to the farm south of Gildford, where they lived and worked for the next ten years. In 1936 they bought a farm northwest of Chester. They farmed and ranched there until their retirement in 1977, and have continued to live in their home on the farm since then. Peg's health began to fail about 8 months ago. Following a week's stay in the Liberty County Hospital, she died on Saturday evening August 1st. She was 82 years old.

Peg had been very active at St. Mary's Church; she had held offices in the Altar Society and taught C.C.D. for 30+ years. She was a charter member of the Liberty County CowBelles and the Utopia Homemakers Club. She had also been active in the Chester Garden Club, the American Legion Auxiliary, and the Hi-Line CattleWomen's Club. In 1985 she received a "Merit Mother of the Year" award through the extension service.

Peg had many hobbies. Her mind and her hands were never idle. She enjoyed sewing, knitting, and crocheting. She was a proud homemaker and kept her house spotless. She loved cooking and entertaining, and meals at her house were always plentiful and delicious! In those earlier days she enjoyed riding horses and herding cattle. She had also done some bowling and fishing. Although not an excellent pianist, she enjoyed it and took piano lessons as an adult. Peg loved the work around the farm and always looked forward to getting out into the vegetable and flower gardens in the spring. Every fall she and Ed would take a trip somewhere, and she always enjoyed those little side-trips along the way so she could learn about a special person, place, or thing. Peg, was her grandkids' biggest fan, and she was always there with two or more cameras taking photographs of special 4-H, church, and sporting events. She liked to play cards, especially pinochle and "Spite" and her favorite board games were Scrabble and Chinese Checkers. She enjoyed writing, be it short stories, poems, or family histories. She was very interested in genealogy and had done some extensive research in compiling a detailed booklet of her family ancestry for her grandchildren. Peg was always a very generous, caring person when it came to sending cards, gifts, and other tokens of friendship. Her 62-year marriage and love for her family is what made life exciting and meaningful to her.

Peg's survivors include her husband, Ed of Chester, a son and daughter-in-law, Bill and Agnes of Chester; five grandchildren, Kathy Kulbeck of Escondito, CA., Mary Fritz of Chester, William "Pete" Cole of Chester, Tim Cole of Soda Spring, ID., and Colleen Boucher of Aurora, CO.; seven great-grandchildren; and numerous nephews and nieces. She was preceded in death by her parents, by her sister (Frances Slocum), by two daughter (Mary Agnes and Rosemary), and by a great-granddaughter (Amy Fritz).

Rosary prayers were held at 8 p.m., on Monday, August 3rd, at St. Mary's Church in Chester. Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated by Father John Coady at 11 a.m. Tuesday at the church. Vocalists included Jack and Patsy Seidlitz, Anna Cutler and Tim Cole, and accompanists were Helen Ann Aaberg and Muriel Huol. Musical tributes included "How Great Thou Art" by Anna; "Just a Closer Walk With Thee" by Ann and Tim; "Panis Angelicus" by Jack; and "May the Angels Take You Into Paradise" by Patsy and Jack. Peg's four great-granddaughters sang "Amazing Grace," accompanied by their Aunt Colleen.

Friends serving as pallbearers were Leonard Fritz, John Skierka, Eldon Graff, Charles Hull, Raymond Fritz, and Fred Sitch. Ushers were special friends Rosalie Sunderland and Margaret Meissner. Altar servers were Ed Cole, David Hull, and Robert Pulst. Grandsons, Peter and Tim Cole, served as lecturers. Following burial in the Chester Cemetery, a memorial luncheon was held at the church. Funeral arrangements were by Rockman Chapel.

Peg Cole was a member of the Broken Mountains Genealogical Society in Chester, Montana.

NEW BOOKS

PURCHASED BY BROKEN MT. GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

1. "GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH DIRECTORY", National and International 1987 - Guide to Genealogical Societies, Authors: Keith A. Johnson and Malcom R. Sainty.
2. "A BIBLIOGRAPHY OF AMERICAN COUNTY HISTORIES", compiled by P. William Filby. "A comprehensive list of the 5000 county histories published to date. Compiled for use by the historian and layman alike, it provides a state-by state listing of all county histories of any significance, giving information concerning title, author and place and date of publication, as well as details of editions, reprints and indexes, so the reader can learn what is available almost at a glance."
3. "PASSENGER AND IMMIGRATION LISTS - 1987". Printed by Gale Research. Due to a mix-up at Gale Research our society didnot receive our 1984 Supplement to the set of "PASSENGER AND IMMIGRATION Index". We now have that book to our series and the above. Do come in and check these valuable books for research. This series of books are non-circulating.
4. "HERITAGE QUEST" SUBSCRIPTION - The membership purchased this when we hosted them Sept. 29th and received two issues of their magazine which comes out six times a year. You will find this magazine informative.

Anna Mae Hanson purchased issue #6 July/August 1986. because it had an article "INTRODUCING THE ALLEN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY, FORT WAYNE, INDIANA", which has been one of our subscribers. They also purchased our "HOMESTEADERS" AND "CEMETERY" BOOKS.

A BRIEF LOOK AT THE ANCESTOR'S OF NEIL SHEPHERD

Neil SHEPHERD was born in Chester, Montana, on June 11, 1923, the 4th child of Glen and Lottie (MITCHELL) SHEPHERD. He was married on October 26, 1946, to Alice NELSON, the daughter of Nels O. & Esther (MONTELIUS) NELSON, of Missoula, Montana. Neil and Alice have two children--a son, Roger, living in Shelby, Montana, and a daughter, Dawn Leighton, living in Helena, Montana.

Neil's father, Glen Stanley, was born in Van Buren County, Iowa, on March 26, 1892, and was the second child of George and Addie (BELL) SHEPHERD. In 1902, his family moved to Cooperstown, North Dakota. In October of 1912, Glen shipped an immigrant car, along with his uncle John SHEPHERD, to Chester, Montana. Glen's future brother-in-law, Simon WARRINGTON, also accompanied them on this trip. All three homesteaded south of Chester. Glen married Lottie MITCHELL, a daughter of a pioneer family, on July 3, 1913. They had five children--Ralph, Carrie (BRACKEN), Harold, Neil and Leo. Glen and Lottie farmed until 1943. After Lottie's death in 1945, Glen moved to Kalispell, Montana, and married Ava SCHAD. She had two daughters, Mary Anna Zauner and Dixie TYE.

Glen's father was George Nathan SHEPHERD and his mother was Addie Barbara BELL. George was born near Bentonsport, Iowa, and Addie was a neighbor girl, the daughter of John Reid William and Sarah Ann (BRIDDELL) BELL. When George was fifty years old, he joined the homesteaders in Montana, and moved to an area south of Chester, in 1916. Addie had the distinction of being the first postmistress in the little town of Tiber, Montana--and her pay was the equivalent of what she sold in stamps daily. Both George and Addie were faithful Methodists, actively promoting the church's and the Ladies Aid activities. George died in 1946, and Addie was just shy of 90 years when she died in 1960.

George's father was Henry Clay SHEPHERD, and he was born on a boat frozen in the Mississippi River near St. Louis, Missouri, during the journey his family made from Ohio to Iowa, winter of 1838-39. In 1863, he married Hannah STULL, one of eight children of John and Jennie (ROBINSON) STULL. Henry and Hannah were staunch Methodists, and their home was noted for its Christian hospitality throughout their fifty-nine years of married life near Bentonsport, Iowa. George was their second child.

Henry's father, Dr. Nathan SHEPHERD, was born in Jefferson County, Ohio, in 1806, and was the eldest of eleven children. He united with the Episcopal Church when only twelve years of age, and began his study of medicine at age eighteen. In 1830 he married Zerina STEWART of Kentucky, and in 1832, he received his license as a local preacher. Not only was he a preacher and a doctor, but an educator, orator, Justice of the Peace, a Mason --a pillar of his Iowa community. Zerina, a devout Methodist, was one of twelve children to William and Malinda (PRICE) STEWART. William STEWART at age 17 became a volunteer Scout and Indian spy for the protection of the settlers of Virginia and Kentucky. William and Malinda were married in Kentucky in 1796. He died in Iowa in 1853. Malinda was a twin--one of eleven children of Christopher and Mary (HATFIELD) PRICE, and the sixth generation of Prices who were born in Maryland. Her ancestor, THOMAS PRICE, was born in Wales, but came on the 'Ark and the Dove' with the expedition from England to colonize the Maryland area in 1634.

Nathan's father, William SHEPHERD, was born in Maryland, in 1785, and married Catherine RIPPITH in Washington County, Pa., about 1805, and settled just over the line in Jefferson County, Ohio. He helped lay out the town of Leesville, and built the first house there, but the store he started in Leesville was unsuccessful. He lived a few years in Wheeling, moved to Cincinnati for a few more years, and finally reached

Van Buren County, Iowa, in 1838, where he became a farmer. Even though at least six of his children had married in Ohio, all followed him to Iowa. He and Catherine had eleven children, and by his second wife, Elizabeth PLOWMAN, three more were added. Catherine's parents were Will and Sarah (ROSS) RIPPETH, both natives of Maryland.

William was the son of Dr. Nathan SHEPHERD, who was born in Maryland, but became a rather extensive land speculator in Ohio, as well as being a farmer, a medical doctor, and the father of eight children. He laid out the town of Shepherdstown, in Belmont County, but died at his son's home in Marshall County, Va., at the age of eighty-four. His wife, Mary HAINES, died in 1855 at the age of ninety-one.

The generations before Dr. Nathan stayed in Maryland--Francis, the immigrant arriving in about 1675 as an indentured servant.

Much of the material submitted above is from the information obtained by Florence Mills Hooten, who is also the granddaughter of George and Addie Bell Shepherd.

JOHN and ENID

COMPILERS & RESEARCHERS

3005 CHARLES, St. JOSEPH, MISSOURI 64501

April 1987

JUST PUBLISHED!

"TRACING YOUR ROOTS IN THE MISSOURI RIVER VALLEY"

A Directory of 27 counties bordering the Missouri River from Sioux City, Iowa to Independence, Missouri. 150 pages, Soft cover, plastic pin binding. Only $9.75 Post paid.

This new book contains information furnished by each county, a brief early history, where available records may be found whether they be in Court Houses, Museums, Genealogical or Historical Societies and Research Libraries.

More important, when the above places are open to the public such as hours of the day, days of the week and months of the year. A real time saver for anyone doing research!

Each county has something unique and different from all of the others. Many have historic homes, museums, monuments, homes of famous persons, special events, interesting places, parks, resort lakes, etc. In short, there is just about anything for everyone whether they be a tourist, historian, researcher or a family genealogist.
