Mrs. J. A. Arthurs received the sad news on Thursday of the death of her step mother, Mrs. Thos. Barnes in St. Joseph, Michigan.
OBITUARY

Edith Elizabeth Bengtson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Bengtson, was born Oct. 24th, 1902 at Wilcox, Pa. She died at home February 12th, 1916, at the age of 3 years 3 months and 18 days.

Her death came quite unexpected, though she had been ill, more or less, for two years. Funeral services were held Feb' y. 16th at home, where relatives and sympathizing friends and neighbors had gathered. Rev. Bengston first spoke some in the Swedish language expressing his hope even in the midst of sorrow and also thanking the sympathizing friends. Rev. L. J. R. Larson then conducted the rest of the services. He spoke in English in connection with the word of Jesus, “The damsel is not dead, but sleepest”. She was then taken to the Joplin Cemetery, where internment was made. Peace be with her.

ONE MAN KILLED and FIVE HURT When Auto Jumps A 14 foot Cut bank

The entire party unconscious for more than two hours

A very sad accident occurred last Saturday night when an auto plunged over an embankment and one man was killed almost instantly and five others injured more or less.

A party of six, consisting of Ira Burns, O. P. Hanson, Pete and Julius Carlstad and Martin Bergerude were taking a spin in Mr. Burns' car about 14 miles south of town, visiting friends, when it was suggested that a drive to a school house in the neighborhood be made, where a dance was held. The suggestion materialized and the party with Mr. Bergerude at the wheel, who was the only one that knew the road, sped to their destination. A faint road was followed which grew fainter as they advanced, when suddenly they dropped over an embankment, throwing five of the occupants out of the auto, Mr. Bergerude remaining at the wheel. The five who were thrown out became unconscious for at least two hours.

Pete Carlstad was the first who came too, and upon examining his companions found Bergerude in a dying condition. Help was secured at a neighboring house but before returning Mr. Bergerude had expired. Later examination showed that his neck and jaw had been broken and his abdomen crushed, evidently the sudden shock or impact as the car dropped broke his neck as well as crushed his chest against the steering wheel. The bank was 12 or 14 feet over which the car dropped and a raise of perhaps 3 feet on the other side stopped the further progress of the car. The other five occupants, tho bruised considerably are again able to be about.

The deceased was 29 years old and is survived by a wife and baby, who will, together with Clarence Johnson, a brother of Mrs. Bergerude, who arrived from Minot last Monday, accompany the remains to Fergus Falls, Minn., for burial, the former home of the deceased.

Mr. Bergerude was one of the most popular and best known citizens of Joplin, and his death came as a terrible shock to the many friends of the family.

Undertaker A. H. Layton prepared the remains for shipment which were shipped on No. 4 last Tuesday.

The bereaved wife has the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in her sad affliction.

MRS. CRAWFORD PASSES

Mrs. Robert Crawford passed away Monday December 3rd. She has been ill for several months, but apparently better at this time, so it came as a great shock to the family as well as her many friends. The funeral was delayed awaiting the arrival of Miss Agnes Crawford, her daughter, and other relatives from the east, who arrived Thursday morning. The funeral services were held at the country home, east of this city. Interment was held in the Chester cemetery.

FRIENDS PAY TRIBUTE TO MRS. LEE CROWELL

The last tribute that can be extended by friends was paid to the late Mrs. Crowell, who passed away at St. Joseph Hospital, St. Paul, Minn., on Thursday, April 20, by Chester people, who turned out en masse to attend her funeral, on Monday, the remains having arrived on train No. 1, Sunday, which was stopped at the request of Mr. Crowell.

Services were conducted by Father Sansome at the Catholic church, and were listened to by the largest concourse of citizens who ever attended a funeral in Chester. The beautiful casket was literally covered with flowers, the last offering of loving friends. The ceremonies were in charge of Mr. Hansen, representing the Holland Undertaking Co., of Havre. The pall bearers were Elmer Denison, W. J. Dow, J. N. Harvey, John Gorman, Thomas Healy, Sr., and Thomas Snuffer.

Mrs. Crowell was born at Randolph, Wisconsin, December 9, 1886, and was united in marriage with Lee R. Crowell, October 4, 1909, by whom she is survived in Chester, a little daughter born of the union having passed away about two years ago. By her exemplary Christian life and lovable womanly qualities, Mrs. Crowell was endeared to a host of friends, who mourn her untimely taking away, and sincerely sympathize with her husband in his bereavement. Everything that affection and money could do to avert the end was done, but to no avail, and all that Mr. Crowell has left is the memory of his beloved wife, and the knowledge that he did his full duty by her. He has the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in his sad affliction.

Pearl Nugent and brother from Mohal, N. D., who were in attendance at the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Lee Crowell, returned to their home Saturday.
DEATH OF E. W. DENISON

The community was shocked and saddened last Wednesday when the news spread that a telegram had been received telling of the untimely death of Elmer Denison, at Rochester, Minn. Mr. Denison had been in poor health for some time, and on the 8th of this month he left for the hospital at Rochester, Minn., where Mrs. Denison was to join him if it was found that an operation was necessary. Last Monday he wrote that he had had an X Ray examination, but he was so weak they were to complete the examination next day, and to know if it was necessary to operate. But the next word was the sad news of his death which occurred at a Rochester hotel, Monday evening at 9:30.

His mother, Mrs. Emma Conkling, and Mrs. Denison with children left at once for Minneapolis, the former home of the Denisons, where it is expected the funeral will be held from the Congregational Church, of which Mr. and Mrs. Denison are members. The funeral arrangements will be under the auspices of the church. In the passing away of Mr. Denison, Chester loses one of her most valuable citizens, and a man who was honored and respected by all who knew him, and those who knew him best were those who respected him most.

He was born in Iowa, 39 years ago, and moved from there west, living in North Dakota and Minnesota. He was married in 1909 to Miss Mamie Viets of Minneapolis. To this union two children were born, Caroline age 5, and Wadsworth age 3. In the spring of 1910 they moved to Chester where Mr. Denison became cashier of the Chester State Bank. He resigned this to become cashier of the First State Bank. He opened a loan and land business three years ago. At the time of his death he was First Vice President of the Joplin State Bank.

Deceased is survived by his mother, Mrs. Emma Conkling, brother Frank of this city, a sister, Mrs. C. O. Taylor of New London, Conn., and six half brothers and sisters.

A LITTLE TRIBUTE TO A MIGHTY GOOD FELLOW

Many people will remember Jim Fallow, a true representative of the apotheosis of good-fellowship. We well remember him as a tried and ture friend. The following letter was recently received by Mr Rooney, and is evidence of the high esteem in which Mr. Fallow was held by his employers and as-nociates. The letter reads:
Mr. F. Rooney,
Chester, Montana.
Dear Sir:
It is with the most profound sorrow we announce the death of Mr. James Fallow, which occurred at Havre, Mont., on July 14th.

In Mr. Fallow's death we have lost an employe whose fifteen years of service has been marked
by loyalty and competent endeavor. We are sure the announcement of his passing away will be a severe shock to his numerous friends throughout the state of Montana.

As it is necessary to have a representative look after the large volume of business that we enjoy
in that district, we have selected
Mr. Sy. Lanctot, who is familiar with the territory and personally acquainted with the majority of our patrons.

We bespeak for Mr. Lanctot the same kind consideration that has always been accorded our representatives, and any favors entrust-
ted to his care will be appreciated
by both he and ourselves.

Yours very truly,
P. J. BOWLIN & SON.

William Hadlock
Passes Away

On Wednesday about 11 o'clock A.M. this community was shocked at the news that Wm. Hadlock without a moment's warning had been called to the unknown beyond. Mr. Hadlock apparently well, left the Bungalow shortly before 11 A.M. where he was stopping and a few minutes later was found dead near the Piper-Howe lumber yard. Mr. Hadlock has suffered a number of from heart trouble and expected to sell his personal property in the near future and move to a lower altitude, but death called him to a higher plane.

OBITUARY

A very sad event occurred this week in our city in the sudden, of our fellow townsman Mr. Wm. Hadlock. Mr. Hadlock had been suffering some from heart affection, aggravates in a measure by our high altitude, but he had not regarded his case as particularly serious. He was preparing however to change his residence in the interests of his health—when while engaged in attending to some business interests he was suddenly stricken.

Mr. Hadlock was born in Fort Covington, Wisconsin, July 4th, 1858, and had passed his 58th birthday.

His father's name was Peter Hadlock and his mother's maiden name as Eliza Greene.

Mr. Hadlock was the oldest of a family of 7 children, 4 of whom still survive him; Mr. R. M. Hadlock and Mrs. F. P. Wilson of our town, Mrs. H. A. Bemis of Cooperstown, N.D. and Mrs. Ada Wright of Bangor Saskatchewan, Canada. The family left Wis. And moved to Dodge County, Minn. when the boy William was about seven years old, continued to reside until early manhood he came to Valley City, N.D. He remained in this vicinity until coming to Joplin among the early settlers of 1910.

When quite young in his 15th year, his father died throwing the responsibility for the management and support of the family upon young William and in this school of self sacrifice and grievous care for the household, he developed the beautiful character, which made among the whole circle the name of Uncle Wm. the symbol of excellence.

The patience, the self possession and the kindness of evidenced in this noble lifestyle, is only indicated by the fact that his counsels were always universally obeyed in the old home circle and not one unkind word ever was known to escape his lips. The friendly concern which mapped in its embrace the brothers and sisters ordered all the relations of his life and crowned him as a citizen, a neighbor and a friend.

The Presbyterian Church was filled with an assembly of neighbors and friends who were present to pay their last tributes of affection to the departed. Dr. Davis his own pastor conducted the funeral services while the local choir rendered beautiful and appropriate selections. The remains left on the evening train and the departed will be buried near his old home in Valley City beside the mother and a nephew he so fondly loved. He has gone and the world is poorer but he leaves forever in the hearts of those who knew him, the most hallowed memories.

MRS. ANDREW HOVEE DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

After a long and severe illness lasting for more than six months, Mrs. Andrew Hovee passed away last Thursday evening a week. She had suffered from Brights' disease for some time and was taken to the hospital at Great Falls last fall for treatment. She seemed to improve and was returned to her home. She soon grew worse, however, and suffered much for several weeks. Everything possible was done to save her, but to no avail. She bore her suffering without complaint and towards the last she had no pain and quietly awaited the end of life with the assurance of a brighter one to follow.

Funeral services were held at the home in Inverness the following Monday afternoon at 1:30 and at the school house at 2:30 o’clock. Rev. W. J. Hilgendorf, of Hayre Lutheran church officiated.

DR. KROMER DIED AT HAYRE

Dr. A. L. Kromer of Helena, died at Hotel Havre on Friday morning, following a brief illness. Mrs. Kromer and a brother of the deceased arrived from Helena on the morning train Friday, just a few hours before the end came. The cause of death was diabetes, from which the deceased had suffered for several years, the fatal attack starting last Sunday.

Dr. Kromer was an eye specialist, and for several years past had made periodical visits to Havre, where he enjoyed a wide practice. It was to care for his practice in this city that he came here last Saturday, intending to open his offices on Monday.

The body was prepared for burial by Undertaker J. M. Kay, and left on the early train this morning for Helena, where burial will take place next Tuesday. The deceased was a member of the B. P. O. E., and a delegation from the Havre lodge of Elks escorted the remains from the undertaking rooms to the depot—Havre Plaindealer.

BRAKEMAN REIS KILLED IN WRECK

Another fatal accident, where by Harman Ries, a young man who came here three years ago from Minnesota, and has been in the employ of the Great Northern as brakeman, lost his life, occurred near the coal chutes Wednesday. Reis was on top of a car that was being shunted onto the siding, and that left the rails owing to the accumulation of snow and ice. He stayed by his post making stop signals too long, and when he finally jumped, the overturing car caught him as he fell, and instantly crushed his life out. Last Sunday Mr. Ries had been promoted to the position as of freight conductor, in recognition of his excellent service as brakeman, and was to have taking his first run this coming Sunday, as conductor. The remains were taken to Havre on the Wednesday evening skiddoo, where they will be prepared for shipment to his former home in Minnesota.

THE REIS FUNERAL

Havre Lodge No. 213, B. of R. R. T., attended the funeral service of Hiram J. Reis, the young brakeman who was killed at Chester last Wednesday, in a body. The services were held at the J. M. Kay chapel yesterday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. Houston, of the Methodist church. The church choir rendered some very appropriate musical selections.

The trainmen escorted the remains to the Great Northern depot, for shipment to Hutchinson, Minn., the former home of the deceased. Mr. Opsal, the room mate of the young man and Mr. K. Reis, a brother, accompanied the remains on their last journey.—Havre Daily Promoter.
We learn with regret that the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Rolph of Galata died yesterday morning. The Rolph family are well known in Joplin and vicinity. They have the sympathy of this community in this their sad hour.

DENNIS STORES CROSSES DIVIDE.

Friends of Denny Stores were shocked and grieved to hear of his death, which occurred on Friday of last week, after a short fight with the dreaded pneumonia, which began on the Sunday night previous. With his big heart and sunny disposition Denny was a general favorite, and his untimely end is sincerely regretted in the community. He is survived by his wife, three sons, two sisters and two brothers, one whom, Mr. John Stores, of Bowbells, N. D., arrived Sunday, being too late to see his brother alive. The funeral was held Sunday, from the Catholic church, under the direction of Mr. Ainley, of the J. M. Kay undertaking establishment, and was largely attended by mourning friends, notwithstanding the inclement weather.

Dennis Stores was born October 6, 1875, at Hastings, Minn. On October 11, 1904, he was married to Louise Du Val at Faribault, Minn., three children being the result of the union. Mr. Stores was a veteran of the Spanish-American war, having served for three years in the Philippine Islands as a regular.
MRS. GEORGE WARNKE DEAD

Mrs. Sarah S. Warnke, the wife of Geo. C. Warnke living north of Joplin, died at the Hingham Sanitarium last Saturday evening, Dec., 23rd. Mrs. Warnke had been ill for some time and had recently undergone an operation at the Sanitarium at which the end came peacefully and not unexpectedly.

The deceased was born in Cottage Grove, Wisconsin, Sept., 21, 1877. Her maiden name was Lenborg and her father Jno. O. Lenborg, who is now eighty-six years of age, together with several sisters and brothers await the arrival of Mrs. Warnke who left Tuesday night to bear back the remains to the old home cemetery where entombment will be made in the Cottage Grove city of the dead.

Mrs. Warnke was known to all her neighbors as a Christian woman. She had been reared in the Norwegian Lutheran Church and afterwards had belonged to the Methodist and Congregational Churches which indicates she was one of those Christians who believed in working in whatever church was nearest at hand.

For her, death had lost its sting, and she was ready to meet it; her last words were not expressive of any fear but only a few sentiments of kindness toward the companion she would leave when entering into the Rest and reward prepared for her. Our sympathy goes out to her husband and relatives in Cottage Grove. We regret after she had helped to make our community what it is that she must be called away at the time when she might enjoy its greater advantages and prosperity. However the Lord has greater blessings in store for his own than we know, and with submission to His will we bid farewell to one more friend for the present knowing it is a very short time until all that now live shall be on the other side of the grave.
Mrs. Ida Westerlund

Mrs. Ida Westerlund, whose sudden death has cast a gloom over this community was born in Douglass Co. Minn. on July 27th 1878. In 1899 she was married to Peter Westerlund. In 1910 the family moved to Montana taking up a homestead near Joplin. Mrs. Westerlund was a member of the Lutheran Church and an active member of the Ladies Aid. She was a member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Royal Neighbors. She was a beautiful character loved by all who learned to know her, a loving wife and a perfect mother. She died at Great Falls, Mont. Aug. 6th 1916.

Her sudden passing away is mourned by hosts of friends and relatives. The loss is intensely felt in the home where she leaves a husband and a son as well as the little boy William whom she has had in her care for more than two years.

Services are held to-day Aug. 10th at 2 P. M. at the Presbyterian Church. Interment will be made at the Joplin Cemetery.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved ones.
