FORMER CHESTER
BOY IS DROWNED

The following article taken from the Brady Citizen, tells of the accidental drowning of Cameron Cotton. Cameron was well known to the people of Chester, he having formerly lived here. He was drowned on Wednesday, November 20th:

One of the saddest tragedies of Brady's history occurred Wednesday when Cameron Cotton, one of our brightest boys, was drowned while skating on the Prescott reservoir north of town.

Cameron had gone to spend the afternoon with Dannie Webster and had just started from the landing when he broke thru thin ice. Mrs. Webster tried every means of rescue possible and even fourteen-year old Danny plunged in in an endeavor to save him before he went under. Mrs. Webster immediately telephoned to town for help several automobile loads being on the spot in a few minutes.

Work was badly hindered, the ice being so thin it would not bear a man's weight. On the arrival of a boat, the body was located and brought out in a short time.

Mrs. Burdick, his mother and her husband, who live at Valier, were notified and arrived shortly after the body had been brought to the Bevan home.

The funeral was held Friday 2 p.m. and interment made in the Brady cemetery.

Cameron Cotton was 12 years of age and since infancy had lived with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bevan, who were doubly attached to him on that account. He was the best kind of a boy, a good worker, exceedingly bright in his studies at school, ever thoughtful of his grandparents and a friend of all and well liked by everyone. The sudden calling of this young lad is the saddest tragedy in Brady's history and only the deepest sympathy for the bereaved relatives is sentiment of our community.
Prominent Business Man
Passes to Great Beyond

Thinking to better his health by going to a warmer climate, Lee R. Crowell left here about two weeks ago for Seal Beach, Cal. On arriving at San Francisco it seems that he became seriously ill while in his hotel, and was removed to the hospital by the Masonic Board of Relief. The best of attention was given him, but to no avail, and he passed over on Friday, December 6.

The remains were shipped to Chester, arriving here on No. 2 Wednesday morning, and funeral services were held in the afternoon at the Methodist church, Rev. L. J. Christler of Havre, officiating. After the church service, the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a member, conducted the service at the grave, laying the body to rest with Masonic honors. Members of the fraternity acted as pallbearers, Messrs. Carruth, Broderick, Hulphish, Sherry and Freeland of Havre, and Berglin of Chester.

Mr. Crowell was one of the leading business men of Chester and leaves a large host of business acquaintances and close friends.

He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and two children, a brother, and the father, mother and sister who live at Seal Beach, California.

The Democrat joins with the community in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.

F. K. Hales Dies at Nitro

(Galata Journal)
Among the many hundreds of Montana men who went to Nitro, W. Va., to work on the big powder plant for the Government, and who will never return is Frank K. Hales, of Grandview. Mr. Hales having everything in good shape at the ranch, decided that the proper thing to do was to get out and earn some money, and as the offers of the Government sounded the best, he took the trip to Nitro. When he left here he was as strong and hearty could be, but while on the train contracted the influenza from which he never recovered. Word was received by Mrs. Hales that Frank was seriously ill with the flu and knowing Frank's rugged physical condition, it was almost certain that he would come through alright. But last Thursday, Thanksgiving day, came the message that he had passed away. The remains were taken in charge by Mr. Hales' father and were interred in Iowa.

Mr. Hales came to this country in 1910 and has a homestead near Grandview. In 1913 he was united in marriage to Mrs. Lillian Stoner, and to this union four children were born, three of whom are living. He was a kind father and husband, and was held high in the esteem of all who knew him.

PROSPEROUS FARMER ACCIDENTALLY SHOOTS SELF

M. U. Pearce, a prosperous bachelor farmer, living nine miles south of town, was found dead in his shack Wednesday morning. Dave Wilson, a neighbor of the dead man, was the first man to arrive at the scene of the tragedy. Mr. Wilson called at the Pearce home Wednesday morning and upon entering the house was horrified to find the body of Pearce lying on the floor with a 25-20 rifle lying at his side.

It is not thought to be a case of suicide as on a nearby chair stood a bottle of oil and some old rags which were evidently being used in cleaning the rifle.

Mr. Pearce was in Joplin last Friday, having just returned from Havre in company with W. H. Jewett, an old friend and neighbor, where they had been in quest of information regarding the income tax law.

M. U. Pearce came to Joplin in 1913 from Canada, and settled on his homestead south of town. He was originally from Minnesota. He has three brothers still living, two of whom are living in Minnesota, and one in Tacoma, Wash. He was a trombone player in the Joplin band and had a wide circle of friends who were shocked to hear of his tragic death. The coroner at Havre was notified and arrived here Thursday.

C. S. Pearce, brother of the dead man, arrived in Joplin on Monday night and left Tuesday evening for Warba, Minn., where the burial will take place.

MAN SPEEDS TO DEATH
EAST OF CHESTER

Timothy J. Regan, a Spanish war veteran, met death last Sunday night. He was riding a speeder from Chester to Bison to which place he was returning home after spending considerable of the afternoon and evening in Chester, imbibing fire water and kindred thirst quenching components. Mr. Regan was employed as assistant cook of a boarding car outfit near Bison and when leaving Chester was cautioned by the operator that a train was coming from the east, and to be on the lookout for it. He remarked that he was not afraid of the train ahead, but it was the one coming behind him which he was afraid of. He evidently was struck by train No. 2nd 429 west bound. None of the train’s crew was aware that they had struck the unfortunate man until advised of it the day following the accident, as the remains were not discovered until about 10 o’clock Sunday morning, when the section foreman was inspecting his track. Coroner James G. Holland held an inquest Monday afternoon over the remains.

A coroners jury was empaneled consisting of the following residents of Chester: R. M. Raumbuck, W. J. Dow, F. L. Denison, John Jacobson, Ed Keith, H. Rehal. They brought in the following verdict: “The deceased did come to his death by having his skull crushed on the night of March 16th, 1918, probably about 11 o’clock p. m., on the Great Northern railway about three miles east of Chester, Montana. The deceased evidently being struck by Great Northern freight train No. 2nd 429, while he was traveling east on a hand speeder, and met death from his own carelessness and this jury exonerates the G. N. Ry. Co., and its employees from and blame in connection with the death of said accident.”
Richard Rehal, one of the pioneers of Joplin, died after a short illness Wednesday, December 4. He was taken sick with the Spanish influenza one week before his death, which was followed by pneumonia. The remains were brought to Chester Monday and were laid to rest in the Chester cemetery. He leaves to mourn him his wife, four children, parents and numerous other relatives.

WIDLOWSKI IS VICTIM OF IT

One of Men Who Made Trip to Nitro Dies of Influenza Aggravated by Exposure.

Tony Widlowski of Chester is dead of pneumonia following Spanish influenza, his case being one of those aggravated by the trip from Nitro, W. Va., on the allegedly heatless, lightless, foodless, waterless train provided by the Hercules Powder company and Thompson-Starrett company for the Montana laboring men who went to Nitro to find work in the powder mill about the time the armistice was signed. Widlowski died Tuesday at the Deaconess hospital, at Great Falls, having been brought to the hospital on the arrival of the train carrying the first contingent back from Nitro last Friday morning.

Widlowski had been engaged in farming at Chester, where he owned a homestead and near where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Widlowski, now live. He had decided to seek work and was getting ready to leave his place for the winter when the call for help at Nitro came and, believing that the wages promised would provide his best opportunity, he accepted the call and joined the big party to Nitro. When they got there they found a changed situation and instead of inviting wages and other things, they discovered that the situation was so absolutely unattractive they demanded a means of transportation home and were furnished with a train devoid of heat, lights and water from Nitro to Columbus, Ohio, according to an undisputed version of the affair.

When Widlowski came to Great Falls he was ill and word was telegraphed to the Deaconess hospital to have ambulances at the station. Widlowski was one of the patients carried to the hospital then. He never improved.

Tony Widlowski was born at Joliet, Ill., 30 years ago. He came to Montana about 10 years ago. He is survived by his parents and four sisters and one brother, the sisters being Mrs. Otto Reik of Chester, Mrs. J. W. King of Great Falls, Mrs. Joe Fritz and Miss Agnes Widlowski of Chester. His brother, Joseph Widlowski, is serving with the 16th infantry in France.

The deceased was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge at Chester and word was sent to that order and to the parents. The body was taken to O'Connor's pending the completion of funeral plans.—Great Falls Tribune.

The body of Tony Widlowski was shipped from Great Falls Thursday and arrived here that evening. The funeral will be held today and interment made in the Chester cemetery.

FRANKLIN PIERCE WILSON
DIES SUDDENLY IN SEATTLE

Joplin has been called this week to mourn again the loss of another of its pioneers in the sudden death of one of her most honored and valuable citizens, Franklin Pierce Wilson, who passed away after a week's illness at Seattle, Wash., January 30, where he and his son Milo were on a visit.

The funeral service was held at the Masonic hall, Tuesday afternoon, under the auspices of the I. O. O. F., where every available seat was occupied by his fellow townsmen and visiting friends. Dr. C. S. Davis, his pastor, conducted the service. Over fifty of his brother Odd Fellows from Havre and different places along the line were present and efficiently officiated at the funeral and added their impressive service at the grave.

Mr. Wilson had reached the age of sixty-five years and all his life had been intensely active in the varied relations to domestic and social life. He was born in St. Lawrence, N. Y., on November 8, 1852. At the age of 12, his parents moved to Wisconsin, where they remained one year, when they moved again to Atwater, Minn., where he remained until 1880 when he migrated to North Dakota and homesteaded in Barnes county.

In 1879 he was united in marriage to Miss Elinora Hadlock, who still survives him. After seven years on the farm the family moved to Valley City, where he spent the next twenty years of his life in business. Seven years ago, in the year 1910, he came to Montana and has resided ever since upon his farm about 12 miles north of this city.

Mr. Wilson leaves to mourn his loss, besides his widow and three children, two brothers Mr. A. E., Wilson, who lives in Saskatchewan, Canada, Mr. A. M. Wilson of Seattle and Mrs. Ida Schroe­der, who lives in Valley City.

The children Mr. Milo R. Wil­son, Mrs. C. W. Cassidy and Miss Juanita Wilson all reside in Joplin.

In the death of Mr. Wilson, an afflicted household loses a devoted and faithful husband and father, the fraternity a faithful member, the church he always supported as a true friend, and society one of its most patriotic and loyal citizens. Mr. Wilson held the highest personal, social and civic ideals and we recognize the value of words when we characterize him as a pillar of support of those ideals of home and society without which nations and civilization would cease to exist. His place in life will not soon be filled and a large circle will mourn his loss.
GALATA RANCHER IS SUICIDE

Last Thursday evening, about 5 o'clock T. R. Evenson went to the house of A. G. Young, about 8 miles northeast of town, and upon receiving no response to his knock, walked in and discovered Mr. Young lying on the bed with a 22 rifle clasped in his hand.

Mr. Evenson came to town and the coroner, J. G. Holland, and Sheriff Bickle, of Havre came up on the skidoo Friday. An inquest was held and the jury determined that he had come to his death by the use of the 22 in his own hands and had committed the act some time on Wednesday. The body was brought to Galata and embalmed. His mother at Marshall, Mo. and a brother at Turlock, Cal. were notified, and the brother is en route from California to take care of the remains.

John Young, his brother from Turlock, California, arrived here yesterday and left with the body last night for Marshall, Mo., for interment.—Galata Journal.
