EIGHT YEAR OLD YOUTH KILLED BY HORSE

(From The Glendive Tribune)

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Aageson of Fairchild was accidently killed, Friday the 18th. A younger boy was riding the horse while the other was walking alongside with a rope tied around his waist and fastened to the saddle. The horse became frightened, threw the rider off and dragged the second to immediate death. The father some distance off saw the horse run and saw the boy being dragged. He hurried to rescue the boy but got there too late.

They took the boy to Havre. Burial was made from the Holland undertaking parlors, Monday afternoon.

ORRIES BAKKE DROWNED
SWIMMING IN RESERVOIR

Gildford, July 8, 1924, — (Special to the Liberty County Farmer).

An almost overwhelming shock was received Thursday evening about eight o’clock, when the word came from the reservoir that Orris Bakke was drowning.

Misses Mary Sprague and Verla Conn and Orris Bakke were swimming in the creek adjacent to the main reservoir of the Great Northern. Verla was the only one of the three that could swim very well.
Orris was endeavoring to swim to the raft near the middle of the creek where the girls were. Before reaching it he asked for help. Verla went to his rescue at once but was unable to extend the required help.
Upon seeing her impossible effort she ran for help to Lake’s and then down town. Everyone within reach ran to give assistance, so at least a dozen or two were there immediately but all too late for life.
The body was not found for forty-five minutes after it was last seen, and then in about twelve feet of water near the place he went down. Strenuous effort was then applied for near an hour to bring back life again but all in vain. Doctor Husser was called and arrived while the body was still being worked with. After all examination he stated that further effort would be futile. The body was taken to the hotel and prepared for burial the morning of the Fourth by Undertaker Holland.

Funeral service was held at the home and the Lutheran Church basement south of town Sunday after noon, Rev. O. O.
Andvick of Havre officiating. Interment was made at the Lutheran cemetery. It was one of the largest attended funerals, over forty autos and more than a dozen horse drawn vehicles lining in. The basement was unable to admit them all.

Orris Bakke had just previously passed his seventeenth birthday the seventh of June. He was the oldest child of Mr. And Mrs. Peter Bakke living several miles southeast of this town. He leaves, besides his parents, two brothers, Lloyd and Alf, and three sisters, Ruth, Signe and Edna.

Just two weeks prior to his funeral he was confirmed at the basement church from which he was buried.

Orris was one of those big hearted, loveable characters liked by everyone that knew him. He was very industrious and an excellent high school scholar. He was one of the piers of the basket ball team.
He always had a pleasant word and a smile long to be remembered. He completed his grade school work in the country and attended the Gildford high school the past year.

The entire community is moved with deep sympathy by the sad occasion and extend most tender sympathy with those who mourn his loss.

Relatives from out of town attending the funeral were Mr. And Mrs. Peter Peterson from Dutton, Mont., George Bakke from Stanley, N.Dak., Messrs. Anton and Alf Kastelle from Whitefish, Montana.

JOHN O. BERGLIN KILLED
IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT
NEAR ST. PAUL SUNDAY

CHESER BANKER VICTIM OF AUTO PLUNGE OVER TEN FOOT EMBANKMENT NEAR TWIN CITIES, RALPH M. SHELDON, WELL-KNOW HERE, IS KILLED INSTANTLY. THIRD MAN DIES WATCHING WRECK.

(Associated Press)
John Berglin, Chester banker and former member of the Montana legislature, was killed in an automobile accident near St. Paul, Sunday morning according to information received.

Only meager details of the accident were secured. According to these Berglin, in company with Ralph M.
Sheldon, was driving from Owatonna, Minn., to Minneapolis. When about three miles from St. Paul something happened to the steering gear and the car went over a ten foot embankment, instantly killing Sheldon, and pining Berglin under the car.

Herman Abram, a farmer working in the field near by, went to the assistance of Berglin and tried to lift the car off his body, failing in his efforts. While watching the wreck he died from heart failure.

The car caught fire and Berglin was so badly burned he died later in a St. Paul hospital.

John O. Berglin was born in Sweden on January 29th, 1880 and was 44 years old. He came to America with his parents when 12 years old. He attended the public schools at Mora, Minn., and later moved with his parents to Grasston, Minn.

He was the oldest of six children John, Axel, Martin, George, Ann and Vernon. The four brothers, his sister, parents and his wife (formerly Miss Bird Larson) survive him.

He worked in a general merchandise store and then in a bank at Mora for Sheldon Bros. Giving up banking he went to work for the F. A. Patrick Co., of Duluth. He returned to work for Sheldon Bros., and was employed in banks at Bemidji and International Falls before coming west.

Berglin came to Montana in 1910 in the employ of Sheldon Bros., as cashier of the Chouteau County State bank, and then the Chester State bank, later the First National Bank of Chester, where he successfully filled the position of cashier, vice president and president.

Following the suspension of this bank in July, 1923, he entered the employ of the Federal Reserve bank of Minneapolis in this territory.

Berglin was a public spirited citizen, intensely interested in the development of Northern Montana, and with a firm faith in its future prosperity. He served as a member of the school board at Chester and its chairman for many years. In 1920 he was chosen a member of the state legislature for Liberty county, serving for two years.

He left home last week on a business trip to Minneapolis.

The funeral will be held at Forest
Lake, Minnesota Thursday afternoon, at 1:00 o'clock.

JOHN O. BERGLIN

Friends and acquaintances of Mr.
Berglin received a terrible shock Sunday when a wire was received stating that John passed away at eleventhyirty, a.m. following an auto accident.

He left last Wednesday for the Twin Cities on business matters, but had intended visiting his aged parents at Forest Lake before returning to Chester. He in company with Ralph M. Sheldon drove from Minneapolis to Owatonna, about 90 miles south of St. Paul Saturday afternoon, and ret-turning Sunday morning according to a letter received by the editor this Tuesday morning from George Berg-lin, had reached within three miles of St. Paul, going up a winding hill, when the steering gear broke throwing the car over a ten foot embankment.

Mr. Sheldon was killed instan-tially, while according to reports, Mr. Berglin was not so seriously injured. The car instantly caught fire and two men who happened to be near roused to the assistance of the injured men. On account of the flames nothing could be done by these men and one of them, Herman Abrams, expired while watching the terrible scene. When assistance arrived Mr.
Berglin was badly burned but conscious and requested the doctor in charge to immediately notify the editor. He was unconscious when his relatives arrived and stayed so until the end.

Since the suspension of the First National Bank last year, of which he was president, Mr. Berglin has made his home with our family. Words are inadequate to express our feeling over his sudden demise. We knew him as probably few people knew him. He was of a kindly disposition, generous to a fault and always more than willing to help others when possibly he needed it himself. Unselfishness was the outstanding trait of Mr.
Berglin's character and his many friends feel that this community has lost a big man.

Because of his unfailing belief in the future of Northern Montana, and also to square all of his obliga-

Thomas, and we know that he would have worked on.

...and when things get too hard in the world, we can always come here, to this place, and unplug for a few months more.
...and we would have worked on.

In his memory, and as a way of tribute and thanks for the many friends we join in thinking of him.

The funeral will be held at Forest
Lake, Minnesota Thursday afternoon, at 1:00 o'clock.

DR. CARL E. FOSS
CLAIMED BY DEATH

(Havre Promoter)

Dr. Carl Elmer Foss, one of the prominent physicians and surgeons of Northern Montana, died yesterday morning at the hospital from acute nephritis, which followed an operation for gangrenous appendix.

Dr. Foss had been ailing for a long time but did not want to undergo an operation and he did so only as a last resort. He watched the surgeons at their work and did not take ether until after the appendix had been reached and his serious condition ascertained.

The operation, which was performed Wednesday, was deemed successful by him and the attending surgeons, but he developed an acute attack of nephritis due to an old chronic condition, which had existed for a long time, having resulted in his being turned down for army service during the early part of the world war.

Dr. J. S. Almas and Dr. A. A. Husser were in almost constant attendance in the sick room when the condition of the patient took a serious turn. Yesterday morning, at the request of Dr. Almas, Dr. John A. Tracey of Helena arrived for consultation.

Dr. Foss is survived by his wife and their daughter Marguerite, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Foss, and three brothers, Donald, William and Alvin Foss.

CHARLES MARVEL, FORMER CHESTER MAN DIES FROM MOONSHINE POISONING

(Great Falls Tribune)

Charles L. Marvel, a railroad watchman, 606 Fourth avenue south, died Sunday afternoon after a few hours illness of an ailment believed by Dr. L. R. McBurney county coroner, to have been moonshine poisoning. As a consequence of his death, Peter Hinkle, a waiter, is held at the county jail without bond on a charge of selling liquor. After examining Marvel’s body, Coroner McBurney said:

“From all appearances, Marvel’s death was due to moonshine poisoning.”

Coroner McBurney stated that one of Marvel’s lungs was in bad condition and that death apparently had been due to suffocation superinduced by acute alcoholism.

Hinkle was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Fred Houtari pursuant to a complaint filed in the Wilson justice court by Mrs. Marvel, charging sale of intoxicating liquor. His bond was fixed by Justice C. A. Wilson at $2,000 but upon being informed of threats alleged to have been made against Marvel by Hinkle, the coroner ordered Sheriff Bob Gordon to hold the prisoner without bond.

Dr. Mayland, who attended Marvel Sunday morning and again shortly before the man died, stated Sunday night that “from all appearances Marvel had been drinking moonshine whisky and that death resulted from that cause.

After Marvel died County Attorney F. A. Ewald obtained a search warrant and with Capt. Fred Locher, Lieut. R. S. Gaunt and Officer Ernest Goings went to Hinkle’s home. They found a bottle which apparently had contained whisky, according to the county attorney.

After the autopsy, the stomach of Marvel was taken to the office of Dr. T. E. Walker, as was the bottle which had been found in Marvel’s overcoat. A chemical analysis will be made of the contents of the stomach and bottle today. Coroner McBurney stated that an inquest will probably be held early this week.

Marvel was a native of Warsaw, Ind., and had been a resident of Montana since 1912. He owned a ranch north of Chester and, according to his son, spent most of his time there, until about four years ago, when he came to Great Falls. Since that time he has been employed by the Great Northern railway, in the round house occasionally and at other times as watchman.

NOBLES' DEEPLY APPRECIATE KINDNESS OF NEIGHBORS

"It is possible that there are times when some of us really don’t appreciate our neighbors," stated H. R. Noble, farmer from southwest of town and father of Dwight Noble, who passed away last week, "but I want to tell you, Mr. Editor, that real neighbors are one of the best things we have, but some times don’t know it."

"When Dwight suddenly became ill last Friday evening, the doctor was sent for. Without telephone in our community, it was but a short time until the yard was full of cars, driven by neighbors, who wanted to know how they might help. The ladies were extremely kind to Mrs. Noble, Dwight’s wife, and helped in so many different ways. We did not know there were so many kind people, but they came in droves to our assistance. It was indeed a pleasure to us, even in our rending grief in later losing son, father and husband."

Mr. Noble stated that Dwight had just finished milking, and sitting on his stool said "Six feet of earth makes us all of one size." In a few minutes he became very ill, and although Dr. Melvin came and worked many hours over Dwight, and making several calls later, one of which was of his own accord. Mr. Noble stated that everything was done that could have been done by mortal man.

Services were held at the home, Henry J. Thurman, a neighbor officiating. The neighbors present sang, "Oh, What a Friend is Jesus," "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me."

The body was prepared for shipment to Amboy, Illinois, and interment will be made in that cemetery.

HARVEY PRICE PASSES BEYOND

News came to Chester from Chouteau last Friday announcing the death of Harvey Price, following a severe stroke of paralysis about New Years.
Mr. Price, a well known horse raiser and rancher of Whitlash came to this country in about 1900 and first had a ranch near Grassy Butte.
Later he purchased a ranch northeast of Whitlash and pursued the occupation of raising horses on quite an extensive scale. He was known far and wide as one of the best horsemen in the state, and a couple of years ago spent considerable time in riding for movie corporations both in the East and in California.
Last summer he received an appointment as State hunter and trepper and was assigned to the territory in the neighborhood of Gilman and Chouteau. He, with his wife and three children, moved to the location, and Mr. Price was on duty when the stroke caught him. It is stated that in some manner he managed to get on his horse and ride seven miles to get assistance.
Mr. Price was about 45 years of age and his friends who know him well state that a squarer man never lived. His body was laid to rest Monday in the Chouteau cemetery.
HENRY CONRAD RASMUSSEN

Henry C. Rasmussen died at St. Luke's hospital November 6, 1924, from injuries sustained in an accident which occurred on the Sunset Highway near Spokane, Wash.

Mr. Rasmussen and a neighbor, Mr. Klimnitz, were driving from Four Lakes to his home near Clayton, when, in giving room to a passing car the wagon struck the curb and he was thrown out in such a way that the rear wheel passed over his body.

He was immediately taken to a hospital where everything was done for him, but after lingering about seven hours he passed away, being conscious until the last.

Impressive funeral services were conducted in the undertaking parlors by Dr. C. Ivern Hanson of the Seventh Day Adventist church with neighbors and friends of Four Lakes among whom he had lived but a short time but all of whom mourned his loss sincerely, in attendance.

He was well known in Joplin and vicinity where he was one of the early settlers.

His was an unselfish nature and he was ever ready to extend help to those in need of a friendly hand and his most devoted friends were those who knew him best.

He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and seven-months old daughter, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Rasmussen and a sister Mrs. T. Madson, now of Moscow, Idaho; a sister, Mrs. E. C. Tolley of Joplin and Shelby; two brothers, C. K. and J. B. Rasmussen and a sister, Mrs A. M. Engelberg all of Kenmare N. D.

Interment was made at Riverside cemetery.

She had been in poor health for several years, but not until about a year ago did it become serious.

Mrs. Squires was well and favorably known in Chester and community. She with her husband and children homesteaded southwest of Chester, he later becoming Liberty county's first clerk and recorder. They moved to Wolf Point in the summer of 1922 where Mr. Squires is employed on the Great Northern.

The body was found in his house on his homestead about 5 miles northeast of the lower Prescott ranch, in whose employ he had been a sheep herder for several years. According to the authorities he had been dead at least a week before the body was found.

FRANK UTTER, HAVRE JURISIT, DIES IN EAST

Havre, Dec. 24.—Judge F. N. Utter, one of the best known residents of Havre and a leading Montana lawyer, jurist and banker, died Tuesday morning in Lafayette, Ind., where he had gone for medical attention, according to word received in Havre.

Judge Utter was taken sick last fall with an attack of influenza and it left him in a weakened condition, which was at first pronounced cancer. He went to one of the largest clinics in the middle west for diagnosis and there it was pronounced tuberculosis of the spine.

Following this diagnosis the judge decided to go to a famous hospital and sanitarium at Lafayette, Ind., where his nephew was one of the leading surgeons, and another diagnosis confirmed the decision.

It was decided that Mr. Utter would have to wear a plaster cast for months and he was placed in one and reports received here were most encouraging.

Mrs. Utter and the children were in Lafayette where they went recently to join him.

Judge Utter had been long identified with the life of northern Montana, coming to Havre as a lawyer. He was cashier of the old Havre National Bank and was appointed judge of the seventeenth judicial district and was re-elected to the position. In recent years he has been in private practice.
George Veilleux, aged 67, fell dead at about eleven o'clock Saturday morning while working at the saw mill. Mr. Veilleux had just placed a stick of wood in the saw and turned around, when he fell backwards dead. Mayor French was near him at the time and immediately rushed to him, but life was extinct.

The deceased had resided in Post Falls four years and was well and favorably known.

George Veilleux was born at Three Rivers, Canada, September 20, 1856. On August 20, 1889 he was united in marriage with Miss Emma Hill. Nine children were born to the union, seven of whom with the wife survive. The children are William Veilleux, Fort Benton, Montana; Mrs. E J. Blanchard, Chester, Montana; Mrs. Celia Lowe, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; Ernest L. Veilleux, Hillyard, Washington; Mrs. Pat Quinnan, Brinkman Montana; Mrs. Otis Lawler, Chester, Montana; Mrs. Ben Brigger, Post Falls, Idaho. All the children were present at the funeral except Mrs. Quinnan.

The funeral was from the Catholic church at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, conducted by Rev. Fr. McEligott. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery at Post Falls.—The Post Falls (Idaho) Advance.
