The tragedy occurred as Aspevig was coming in for a landing after a spraying operation. The accident was witnessed by Perris Ness, Austin Johnson and Bob Rigg. However, they did not actually see the plane hit the ground. They knew it was in trouble and drove to the scene immediately, and found the body in the demolished plane.

Ness filed the following report:

"We were standing on the south end of my quonset and watched Bud coming back from spraying some of his crops three miles west of his hangar, located one mile east of where we were standing. I watched the plane going east approximately 50 feet above the ground. At the end of his runway he made a steep pull up into a sort of wing over, approximately 150 feet above the ground. The nose fell through, and the plane went out of sight behind the hill, and I heard full power applied."

Aspevig was a veteran spray pilot, as well as a farmer and respected former member of the House of Representatives of the Montana State Legislature. In the last session he served as lobbyist for the Montana Motor Transport Association. He had gained a reputation as a hard-working legislator who was an outspoken critic of excessive government spending of tax money. ACCIDENT KILLS AL BURKHEAD

Alfred Lee Burkhead, age 42, Chester, was killed in a one-vehicle accident about 6 p.m. Thursday, October 11, about a mile and half northwest of Devon on a county road. Burkhead’s body was not discovered, however, until about 7:30 Friday morning by Bob Helling, farmer who lives in the area. Burkhead had left the Helling farm, which is not far from the accident scene, about 5:45 p.m. the previous evening. Helling discovered the wreck and the body not far from the wreck the following morning when taking his children to school in Devon.

Burkhead was employed as a salesman by the Marias Equipment Co. at Chester. He had traveled to the Helling farm to talk to Helling about purchasing a piece of farm machinery.

The Burkhead vehicle was traveling south on the county road when the accident occurred. He apparently lost control of the vehicle when entering a 90-degree turn to the left. It is possible Burkhead’s vision of the coming curve was obstructed by a hill crest just north of the curve, investigating officers theorized. The vehicle is believed to have rolled two or three times, coming to rest on its side. Burkhead apparently did not die instantly. There were indications he crawled from the vehicle after the accident. He was found about 15 feet from the wrecked vehicle.

Personnel of the Montana Highway Patrol and personnel of the Toole County Sheriff’s Department investigated.

Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church in Chester Tuesday afternoon with Pastor Noel Petersen officiating. Mrs. Ruby Petersen played the organ. Ushers were Con Murphy and Lin Duffin of Chester. Interment was in the Chester cemetery.

Alfred Lee Burkhead was born September 18, 1931 at Gove, Kansas. He was raised in Oakley, Kansas with guardians Mr. and Mrs. Florian Myers. He entered the navy December 7, 1950 and served three years and nine months aboard the USS Orleck.

He was married September 15, 1956 to Margaret Taylor in Choteau, Montana. He was a charter member of the Chester Jaycees, a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, a past member of the L.O.O.F. The accident was investigated by Patrolman Brice Flynn who said it was a partial head-on and broadside collision. Gagnons were traveling south toward their farm home. Rose was doing the driving. Duncan was driving the other vehicle, going north. Apparently the Duncan vehicle went out of control. According to reports it veered into the left lane, then back into the right lane, and then made an end for end flip, and went back across the road into the path of the oncoming Gagnon vehicle. There are indications the Duncan vehicle may actually have been traveling backwards at the time of the collision.

There are numerous reports of another vehicle and a motorcycle at the scene, but these have not been substantiated by authorities at press time.

The Heimbigner boy was killed on impact. Mrs. Gagnon was pronounced dead on arrival at the Liberty county hospital.

GAGNON CAR—Rose Gagnon lost her life driving this car. She was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital. These pictures were not taken at the scene, but in the storage garage at Chester Motors.

DUNCAN CAR—the right side of the car was peeled off apparently from the back to the front. It is believed Shawn Heimbigner was riding on the right side of the front seat, and he lost his life on impact.

The Heimbigner boy was killed in impact. Mr. Gagnon was pronounced dead on arrival at the Liberty County hospital.

Joe Gagnon was transferred to Great Falls hospital Tuesday. He suffered several broken bones, but was believed to be in satisfactory condition. The Duncan boy was discharged from the hospital Tuesday.

MRS. ROSE GAGNON, 46 of Chester and Shawn Heimbigner, 16, also of Chester were killed in a grinding crash about seven miles south of Chester on Montana highway 223 Monday evening. SERIOUSLY injured in the crash were Joe Gagnon, 31 of Chester and Clayton Duncan, 10 of Ledger. Both cars were demolished.

Funeral services for Shawn Heimbigner will be held at 2:00 p.m. in the United Methodist church in Chester Thursday, May 31.

Funeral services for Mrs. Rose Gagnon will be held at St. Mary Catholic church, Chester, Friday morning at 11:00 o'clock.

The accident was investigated by Patrolman Bruce Flynn who said it was a partial head-on and broadside collision. Gagnons were traveling south toward their farm home. Rose was doing the driving. Duncan was driving the other vehicle, going north. Apparently the Duncan vehicle went out of control. According to reports it veered into the left lane, then back into the right lane, and then made an end for end flip, and went back across the road into the path of the oncoming Gagnon vehicle. There are indications the Duncan vehicle may actually have been traveling backwards at the time of the collision.

Other authorities at the scene were Deputies Andy Mygland, Earl Thisselle and Ralph Gentry. There was a fire under the hood of the Duncan vehicle, but it was quickly extinguished. According to reports there were eye witnesses to the crash.

There are numerous reports of another vehicle and a motorcycle at the scene, but these have not been substantiated by authorities at press time.

ELLA JUNE WIGEN

Born: June 18, 1923 - Died: December 7, 1973

Liberty County Times

December 13, 1973

Mrs. Robert (Ella June) Wigen, 50, 610 Copper Court, Great Falls, died of cancer in a Salt Lake City hospital, Friday.

Funeral services were Wednesday at 2 at Our Savior’s Lutheran Church in Chester, followed by burial in Erickson Cemetery.

Mrs. Wigen was born in Chester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Einar Warnes, and was married in Great Falls October 21, 1942. The couple made their home at Chester, where she was active in church work.

A member of Our Savior’s Lutheran Church here, she served on the church board, taught Sunday School, was president of American Lutheran Church Women’s organization and church building fund secretary-treasurer at time of the new church construction. She was a past chairman of the American Red Cross unit, a member of the VFW Auxiliary and served on the cancer fund drive.

After the couple moved to Great Falls in 1968, Mrs. Wigen was treasurer of the Great Falls Figure Skating Club, served as a Cub Scout den mother, and was active in PTA.

Survivors are the widower; sons, Clinton of Hobson, Jeffrey of Great Falls, and Jonathon of Vancouver, B.C.; a daughter, Bodei of Vancouver, B.C.; sisters, Ellen of Lothair, and Esther of Joplin, and brothers, Erwin and Edward Warnes of Chester, Robert and Dee Warnes of California, Chris Warnes of Portland and Dick Warnes of Kalispell.

When your writer thinks of Ella Wigen, he remembers a cute little girl and equally cute boy walking to school hand in hand to the first grade some 44 years ago. The girl was Ella Warnes and the boy was Bob Wigen. They were neighbors in the southeast side of Chester.

They played together during their childhood, were classmates all through school. When they were in high school they dated together, and shortly after they graduated from high school they were married.

Both Bob and Ella were high in scholastic standing in school, and when they took their place in the community they were natural, but quiet, unassuming leaders. Whenever they undertook a job, the community could rest assured the job would be well done.

It was never Bob or Ella, it was always Bob and Ella. In childhood and in marriage it was a union that must have been planned in heaven.

One can only imagine the great loss that Bob Wigen must feel at this time, but there must also be feelings of comfort in reminiscing happy days gone by, and in anticipation of the resurrection to come.
