VIVIAN ANN DOLEZAL

Liberty County Times
January 28, 1982

Vivian Ann Dolezal was born on May 24th, 1923 to Edward and Lucy (Hansen) Rockman. Her parents farmed a relinquished homestead 16 miles north of Lothair; however, Vivian was born in a little homestead shack just east of Lothair. Of interest was the fact that the doctor came from Havre in a freight train boxcar, got off as the train neared the shack, walked to the house, and delivered baby Vivian.

Her early education was at the Trommer country school, and she later transferred into Chester. She graduated with good grades from Chester High School in 1941. She was Chester's first drum majorette and filled those shoes during her four years at Chester High.

Following graduation she took a year of rest-and-relaxation and traveled west. Vivian married John D. Dolezal at St. Ann's Cathedral in Great Falls on June 4th, 1942, and after a honeymoon to Spokane, they settled on the Dolezal homestead north of Chester. They raised a fine family of four children and had a wonderful wedded life together for nearly forty years.

Vivian was a dedicated 4-H leader and worker while her children were growing up. Although she never played a musical instrument herself, she saw to it that all of the children had music lessons. She also insisted that the kids had a good education. Not only was she a good wife and mother, but at times was called upon to be a hay-hand, calf-puller, track-driver, and whatever. She was a talented seamstress and cook. In her quieter hours she enjoyed reading. John and Vivian have been active bowlers for many years in the mixed double leagues in Chester and Shelby. They were members of St. Mary's Church where Vivian served on the Altar Society. She had also been a member of the home demonstration group, "The Other Club".

"After a long siege with cancer, Vivian passed away on the evening of Monday, January 18th, at the Liberty County Hospital in Chester. She would have been 59 years old this coming May.

Left to mourn are her husband, John of Chester; a son and daughter-in-law, Gerald and Cheri of Kewanee, Illinois; a second son, Richard of Seattle and his fiancée, Susan Pratt; a daughter, Jackie of Chicago and a daughter and son-in-law, Jan Dell and Larry Nelson of Havre. Also surviving is a brother, Leslie Rockman of Helena; 5 grandchildren, including Jeff, Julie, Danielle, and Natasha Dolezal and Michael Nelson; and numerous nephews, nieces, and cousins. Vivian was preceded in death by her mother (who died from cancer at age 48 in 1954) and by her father (who died from natural causes at age 89 in 1981).

Vigil prayer services were held Thursday evening at the Rockman Funeral Chapel in Chester. On Friday, January 22nd, Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated at 11 a.m. at St. Mary's Catholic Church by Fathers Rene Petit and Tim Werner. Special music was provided by members of the St. Mary's choir, accompanied by Helen Ann Aaberg on the organ. Songs included "Father of Peace", "Alleluia", "Hosanna", "Be Not Afraid", and "Morning Has Broken". FRANCES EDITH HODGES
Born: March 27, 1884 – Died: May 13, 1982
Liberty County Times
May 20, 1982

Frances Edith Hodges was born in Ponteg, South Wales, England on March 27th, 1884. She was one of seven girls born to Mary Ann Hewett and Alfred Golding. Her father was a coalminer in England. In her youth she attended schools and was raised Presbyterian. In the years that followed, she worked in factories, then immigrated to the United States to marry her sweetheart who had come here several years before. Edith arrived in New York on January 15th, 1916, then came to Montana. She married Thomas Hodges on February 28th, 1916 north of Joplin, where he had homesteaded in 1910. The year they were married, Tom also filed a homestead in Canada, but sold the two homesteads in 1922 when they returned to England. For the next three years, Tom worked in the coalmines there, then they returned to Montana in 1925. They bought another farm 19 miles north of Joplin which they operated until their retirement in 1955. They lived in Joplin until 1969, when they both moved into the Liberty County Rest Home. Tom died there in 1972. Edith remained in the rest home until her death of the evening of Thursday, May 13th. She died at the Liberty County Hospital at the age of 98 years.

Although Edith had a very quiet personality, she was very loyal to her family and friends. There were many times in years past that she would stay with sick neighbors for long periods to nurse them back to health. She was an outdoors person and enjoyed working with Tom on the farm. They both liked to walk, and it wasn’t unusual for them to walk 10; 20, or even 30 miles at a time back in those early years. Edith liked to make rugs and she was a good cook. She loved to go on picnics and fishing trips with her family, and her grandchildren gave her great joy. She and Tom did some travelling after their retirement, and they were happily married for 56 years.

Survivors include her daughter, Mrs. Gus (Frances) Robo of Chester; a sister, Florence Mundy of England; 2 grandsons, Jerry Robo of Fort Benton and David Robo of north Joplin; 6 great-grandsons; and numerous nephews and nieces. Edith was preceded in death not only by her husband and parents, but also by 5 sisters (Jeanette, Elizabeth, Annie, Gwen, and Jessie) and a granddaughter (Violet Marie Robo in 1960).

Joseph Irvin
Services were held June 4 at the Community United Methodist Church in Shelby for Joseph W. Irvin, 85, a Shelby trucking pioneer, who died May 31.

Officiating were the reverends Grover Briggs and Thomas Edwards. Music was sung by Rosemary Johannsen, accompanied by Laila Lindberg.

Honorary pallbearers were Harry Benjamin, Lester Nevins, George Koke, Ben Taylor, Tex Clark and Ron Gilchrist.

Burial followed in Mountainview Cemetery, Shelby.

Irvin was born Oct. 24, 1896 to Bill and Ella Irvin in Cam­bria, Wyo. He moved with his parents to his grandfather’s farm, 18 miles southeast of Belt, where they lived until 1904, when the family took up a homestead south of Geyser. During his boyhood years, Irvin became acquainted with Charles M. Russell, the Montana cowboy artist, who was a friend of his parents.

He left the area in 1918, taking up a homestead about 40 miles north of Denton on the Missouri River, with the idea of becoming a stockman, a lifelong dream. Success in the livestock industry eluded him, however, and during the time he had his homestead, he worked for nearby ranches, including the famous P and N Cattle Co., for ready cash which to supplement his income.

In 1925, he gave up the ranching business, moving to Shelby Feb. 28 that year. Two weeks later, March 17, 1925, Irvin went to work for Lee Eckel at the Ford Garage, where he stayed for about two years.

He later worked for Scotty Henderson, a local contractor, during which time he helped build the present Methodist Church building. Then, he worked at Syster’s Garage in Shelby.

He met Marjorie Grieve, a school teacher, in 1928, and they were married June 25, 1931.

With the encouragement of his wife, Irvin bought out a dray service operated by E.E. Gibson July 2, 1932. His principal business was delivering freight for the former Great Northern Railroad (now part of the Burlington Northern Railroad). Over the years, he developed and expanded the business until his retirement in 1973, when he was 76, to a grandson, Mike Irvin, who operates today under the name I and T Transfer.

His wife died June 1, 1956. He is survived by the couple’s four children, Dick and Dwayne, both of Shelby, Nancy, Seattle, and Janice Edmister, Malta; and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Final rites for Leo W. Jensen

Leo Wayne Jensen was born in Chester on January 25th, 1929. His parents, Hans and Bertha (Ness) Jensen, had come to Montana in 1911 and homesteaded 20 miles northeast of Chester. Leo was one of seven children. He was baptized and confirmed at Our Savior's Lutheran in Chester. His elementary education was completed at the Fairview Country School near the farm, then he transferred into Chester and graduated from high school in 1948. While at Chester High, he participated in the basketball program and played the trumpet in the band. Following graduation he leased the Jabes farm near town. In 1950 he enlisted in the U.S. Army where he served in the Signal Corps in France and Korea. He achieved the rank of Sergeant and was honorably discharged in 1953. He returned to Chester and continued farming. Early that next year he purchased the old Biegalke farm 10 miles N.E. of town.

About this same time Leo met a Chester school teacher, Sylvia Crepeau, and they were married in Great Falls on November 24th, 1954. They continued farming in the Chester community, and over the years Leo accumulated more land, but they made their home on the original Biegalke place. Leo and Sylvia were blessed with four fine daughters. The girls were all involved in school activities, so in 1964 they purchased a home in Chester. They lived there until 1981, when they sold the house after their youngest daughter graduated. Since then they have lived intermittently on the farm and at Leo's mother's house in town.

For the past seven years Leo has been treated for cancer. He never gave up, even after several serious operations. The disease finally took its toll these past few months as his health deteriorated rapidly. He died at home on the early morning of Saturday, June 19th, at the age of 53 years.

Leo is survived by his wife, Sylvia of Chester; 4 daughters, Mrs. Bill (Julie) Gamar of Missoula, Mrs. Charley (Jackie) Frey of Chester, Jan of Missoula, and Jeri (a student at Eastern Montana College); 1 grandson, William Wayne Gamar of Missoula; 2 brothers, Ole and Harold, both of Chester; 2 sisters, Mrs. Gordon (Hazel) Broeder of Kalispell and Alice Richardson of Cut Bank; parents-in-law, Les and Zetta Crepeau of Simms; 2 uncles; and numerous nephews, nieces, and cousins. He was preceded in death by his father in 1955, his mother in 1979, and twin brothers who died in infancy.

Leo was very community oriented. He was a lifetime member of the V.F.W. Post #3997 and had served as post commander. He was actively involved at Our Savior's Lutheran Church and had served on the church council. He was a longtime member of the Chester Lions Club, and for the past 27 years held membership at the Shelby Elks Lodge #1696. He had also served on the Chester School Board and the Farm Home Administration in Shelby. In recent years he was on the Board of Directors of the Liberty Bank of Montana.

Leo was also a sports enthusiast. He was a Chester Booster from the word “go”, especially when his girls were involved, but remained loyal to high school sports even after his girls graduated. In past years he participated in the Chester and Rudyard bowling leagues. In the early years of the Chester Sports Complex, he played softball on the old Vets Club team.

Although he had no hobbies in the true sense of the word, he did many things for relaxation and enjoyment. He loved to read, especially Louis L'Amour books and the “Farmer’s Almanac”. He wasn't a gambler, but liked to play cards now and then. For many years he called “Bingo” at the Vets Club. He liked good food, and especially had a sweet-tooth for fudge. Prior to his illness he had been a workhound. He was a farmer's farmer: he loved farm work – he loved his fields and watching his crops grow – and he loved his machinery. And believe it or not, he even like Sylvia's garden! Recently he has spent a lot of time at home and has become very good friends with his pet dog,
Leo Jensen

"Rusty". Leo was a dedicated family man. He was always concerned about his daughters - their well-being and happiness. He was devoted to his wife, Sylvia, whom he loved deeply, and he was a good neighbor and a loyal friend. Friendships were important to Leo. He always took time to visit and be with friends, be it over a cup of coffee or a glass of beer, or just on the street.

As Robert Lewis Stevenson once said, "A friend is a present you give yourself", and Leo gave himself a lot of presents over the years.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, June 22nd, at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Chester. The Reverend Gregory Kaiser officiated. A special vocal duet by Sue Violet and Wayne Wardell was "Come Unto Me" (taken from the book of Matthew 11, verse 28). The congregation sang "What A Friend We Have in Jesus", with accompaniment by Merna Kolstad. Funeral held for Marle Moulden

Marie Bell Moulden was born on September 12th, 1889 in Westphalia, Kansas. Little history is available, as she was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, and all of her brothers and sisters. It is known that her parents were Alexander and Wealthy Tilford and that she grew up in Kansas. At the young age of 14 she married Mathew Oscar Moulden. In those early years they ran a live theater house in Coffeenville, Kansas, then moved to Oklahoma where Mathew learned the oil business. In the early 1920's they came to Montana where Mathew worked as an oil driller in the fields near Cut Bank and Kevin. It was about 1926 that they came to Joplin, Mathew or "M.O." as he was better known worked for the L.M.S. Implement Company and at the Joplin Store for many years. Marie (or Pet as she was better known) was a homemaker and did sewing and alteration jobs for people in the Joplin and Chester communities. They retired in 1957, but continued to raise a nice garden and a few chickens and pigs for a little extra income. They never had any children of their own, but always had a special fondness for all of the neighborhood kids. M.O. died in 1969. Pet lived alone for the next seven years, then moved to the Chester Rest Home in August of 1976. She died there on the afternoon of Monday, September 13th, the day after her 93rd birthday.

Pet was not only an immaculate housekeeper and a good cook, but also a very well-kept person and a very proud lady. She and M.O. could be described as "home-bodies", that is, they didn't get out-and-about much, but they were nice people and good neighbors. Not only was Pet an excellent seamstress, she also did beautiful fancywork (including needlepoint, crewel, knitting, and crocheting). She loved flowers and always had a "dream garden" of Joplin. Both Pet and M.O. enjoyed playing cards, especially whist, pinochle, and rook. In her later years Pet enjoyed attending Bethel church and meeting with Ladies Aide. She was a very pleasant, courteous and congenial lady, to say the least.

Her only survivors are several nephews and nieces, all of whom live out-of-state.

Funeral services were held at 10:00 a.m. Thursday (Sept. 16th) at the Rockman Funeral Chapel in Chester. The Reverend John N. Olson of the Bethel Lutheran Church officiated. BRUCE LLOYD PACKER
Born: November 22, 1918 - Died: December 30, 1982
Liberty County Times
January 7, 1983

Bruce Lloyd Packer, lifetime farmer and rancher of the north Inverness area, passed away at his home on the evening of Wednesday, December 30th. He was one of five children born to the pioneer family of Erwin M. and Martha (Suckow) Packer. Bruce was born on the family farm on November 22nd, 1918. He was educated in the Rudyard school system, but because of the untimely death of his father, he attended only two years of high school. At the age of 15 he became the man of the family and farmed in partnership with his mother. In the winter of 1942 he attended Montana State College in Bozeman. In the two winters that followed he attended Hillcrest Christian College in Medicine Hat in preparation for a lifetime of service and devotion to his Lord.

Bruce and Winifred E. Middleton were married in Great Falls on November 12th, 1955, and to this union was born a son, Daniel Bruce. From the time of their marriage they have made their home on the family farm located 24 miles north of Inverness.

Bruce had been very active at the Grace Evangelical Church, serving in many capacities including church officer, member of male quartet, youth teacher, and class leader. He had been president of the early day Hill County Sunday School Association. In the beginning of the Montana “Youth for Christ” work he served as regional director. In later years Bruce served as trustee of O.M.S. International, the Western Evangelical Seminary in Portland, the Hillcrest Christian College in Medicine Hat, and the local Farm Bureau.

Bruce was a student of the Bible and enjoyed sharing his knowledge at Lay Witness Missions. He was also a great “historian”; the past was important to him and he tried to preserve it as best he could. For instance, he has maintained the original homestead shack on the farm over all these years. Recently he has worked with draft horses as a hobby, in fact, used some of the old harnesses & equipment in working with them. In past years he enjoyed hunting and flying, and had a private pilot’s license at one time. He was very proud of his orchard, which consisted of crab apples, berry trees, & Ponderosa pines, and because of this he named his place the “Whispering Pines” ranch. Bruce was quite a craftsman, too, and one of his most recent projects was a hardwood cradle for his granddaughter, which is now a very treasured possession.

Bruce has been highly esteemed amongst loved ones & friends, and as it has been so aptly put: “A big part of the salt of the earth left with him”. At the time of his death he was delighting in the responsibility of teaching an Old Testament history class at Grace Gospel Church, where he has served faithfully as an elder. We will all cherish his memory....

Bruce is survived by his wife, Winnie of north Inverness; son and daughter-in-law, Dan and Marylee of Seattle; granddaughter, Nicole; 4 sisters, Mrs. Edgar (Marie) Lincoln of Rudyard, Mrs. Charles (Doris) Kegel of Havre, Mrs. Frank (Cora Mae) Theobald of Boston, & Mrs. John (Dorothy) Duncan of north Joplin; and many nephews and nieces. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Funeral held for Martin Reisenauer

Martin ("Mark") Reisenauer was born on September 19th, 1889 in Colton, Washington. He was one of twelve children born to Michael and Margaret (Britt) Reisenauer, who were early pioneer settlers in the State of Washington. In 1931 he married a Chester area school teacher, Beryl Ann Jennings. The product of the marriage was two children. Mark made his home on the farm until his retirement in 1956, when his daughter’s family took over the operations. Olive Alice Avery Rockman
Born: October 12, 1901 - Died: March 23, 1982
Liberty County Times
April 1, 1982

Olive was a former member of the Trinity Lutheran Church, located near the farm. At the time of her death she was a loyal member at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Chester and the ALCW "Lydia Circle". She loved the "Holy Bible" and spent many hours reading it. In years gone by she taught Adult Sunday School classes, and for the past five years was an active participant in the Thursday night Bible study group at the Methodist Church. Years ago she used to crochet, and in fact, had won many awards for this at the Shelby Fair. Olive was a very generous, loving person and was extremely dedicated to her family and friends. Her peaceful, pleasant, devoted nature was exemplified in many of her paintings. Her mediums were many: pencil, pen and ink, charcoal, water colors and oils. The backgrounds of many of her paintings came from what she observed on the farm, the hills, and the animals which she loved. In this picture she is shown with one of the paintings. The picture was published in the Times in April of 1979.

The Revelation—was a series of paintings by Olive Rockman. In this picture she is shown with one of the paintings. The picture was published in the Times in April of 1979.

Olive Alice Avery Rockman was born on October 12th, 1901 in Prentice, Wisconsin. Her parents were Richard and Mary Louise (Ducharm) Avery, and she was one of four children. In 1906 the family moved to the state of Washington, where Olive attended grade school in Belfast, high school in Burlington, and graduated from Wilson's Business College in Seattle. For the next two years she worked in Seattle as a bookkeeper. She had met Sevier "Sid" Rockman, and they were married on February 4th, 1925 in Olympia. Sid was a farmer in Montana (he had purchased a relinquished homestead in 1914 north of Chester near the Sweetgrass Hills), so after their marriage they came to the farm to live. It was there that Olive discovered her hidden talent: painting. She was 45 years old when she painted her first picture. Because of her serious new-found interest, she ordered a book that contained a complete "home art course", which took her five years to finish. During that time, she spent many pleasant hours drawing by the kerosene lamp in her kitchen. Later she moved into a reconditioned chicken coop, which became her studio. Sid and Olive had no children, but they had each other and became "best friends". They farmed until 1965, when they retired and sold the place to a nephew, Bud Ish. From that time on, they spent their summer months at home in Chester and their winter months in Arizona. A happy occasion in 1975 was the celebration of their 50th Wedding Anniversary. After a relatively short illness, Sid died in Chester on October 19th, 1977. Olive has lived alone since. This past winter she was hospitalized on numerous occasions for a heart ailment. She died at home on the early morning of Tuesday, March 23rd. She was 80 years old.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. on Saturday March 27th at Our Savior's Lutheran Church. Reverend Wayne Bugum officiated and there was a special taped message from former pastor, David Barker, who was very close to Olive.

He attended his first few years of school in the country south of town, and finished his education in Rudyard, graduating in 1944. In the summer months he worked with his folks on the farm, and in the winter he worked at the Chinook sugar beet factory or did furnace and plumbing jobs around Rudyard. "He was a just man and a man of his word in dealings with the farmers of this area, because of these qualities he was highly respected by them."

Delmar Wolfe delivered the following eulogy:

"I feel a great honor has been bestowed upon me by being asked to deliver this eulogy to a very dear and trusted friend, Mr. Edward Thielman, also known as Mr. Ed., Mr. Machinery, and Dad Thielman. It has to be one of the greatest pleasures in a person's life to have known, associated with, and worked for a man of Ed's stature."

"He was a man of honour and strong convictions, but he highly regarded the opinions of others. He sincerely wanted to know both sides of all issues and would read or discuss them until he was satisfied. I have enjoyed many hours of interesting discussions with him and have never known him to belittle the achievements of other people nor boast of his own. I am but one of the many that has had the experience of benefitting from his generosity, his trust in human beings, and his sound advice on many problems."

"Ed had a great deal of foresight and was always searching for ways or methods to improve the status quo of the Hi-Line area, and our town of Chester. Many of the achievements and improvements we tend to take for granted today are the results of his quiet but persistent efforts. Ed! For a friend in need you were a friend indeed. We will all miss you greatly, good friend. Until we meet again, may you transcend to the peace and rest you so rightfully deserve."
