Katie Adams

Katie May Adams was born in Valley Falls, Kansas April 23, 1888. Her parents were Mary Johanna (Straub) and Royce Edward Higgins. She was the third of seven children. After the death of her father in 1904 her mother moved the family to Perry, Oklahoma to be near her relatives.

Katie met her husband Harvey there and they were married June 16, 1906 at Perry. They raised and bred Percheron horses. They also farmed, raising cotton and watermelons and enjoyed the colored workers and their singing. They moved from this small country community to the large city of Tulsa and had stables and livery barn service. That kept them busy due to the discovery of oil and a booming town.

In 1912 Harvey came west to Inverness and helped build the first elevator there. Land was available for homesteading and he liked the climate so took up a homestead north of Joplin by the Canadian border. Late that fall after building a homestead shack he went back to Oklahoma and they decided to move "out west" about Christmas time. Katie and Harvey and three girls, one only two months old, traveled by train to Inverness, then by wagon north to the homestead.

They experienced the usual hardships and good times shared by all homesteaders. Their fourth daughter was born on the homestead shortly before they decided to move to Oregon in 1922 to be able to better the girls' education. The family lived in Portland about ten years, and returned to the homestead to work the farm again. Several changes took place, from horses to tractors, from binders and threshing machine to combines, kerosene lamps to electricity, horse and buggies to cars and planes. They lived there until retiring and moved to Havre in 1960.

They traveled in the winter time and Katie liked to work outside and raised large vegetable gardens and many flowers. Although she suffered from arthritis she started crocheting when she was 80 years old and finished 19 large afghans in ten years.

At fair time she received several ribbons for her afghans and flower displays.

In 1982 she was chosen as "Western Pioneer Woman of the Year" by the Cascade County Cowgirls. The family homestead history was placed by them in the "Western Heritage Center" at the National Cowboy Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City.

In 1983 Katie was interviewed by a member of Montana Historical Society and this was taped and is placed in the Oral Heritage section of Montana State History at Helena.

She played the organ and piano and loved to dance and was a very good horseback rider. She liked horse racing, rodeos and all sports, but especially basketball.

The Sweetgrass Hills were the weather forecaster and the Northern Lights a joy taking the place of city glows.

She was a devoted wife, mother and ones best friend.

Katie is survived by three daughters Mrs. Roy Rimmer (Ruby), Mrs. Opal Johnston, Mrs. David LaValley (Garnett); seven grandchildren; eight great grandchildren and one great great granddaughter, several nieces and nephews.

Katie was preceded in death by her husband Harvey, a son, a daughter and two grandsons, also five brothers and a sister.

Funeral services were held Monday at 10:30 a.m., November 26, at Van Orsdel Methodist Church. Rev. William Thomas officiating. FRANK AEVERMANN

Liberty County Times
November 15, 1984

Frank Aevermann was born on January 15th, 1918 on his parents' homestead located four miles south of Rudyard, Montana. Frank was one of nine children born to Bertha Miller and William Aevermann. He grew up on the farm and attended country school near there. Frank worked on the home place with his folks for many years, and took over the farming operations following the death of his father in 1944. Three years earlier on November 7th, 1941, he married Flora Ann May in Havre. They lead a happily married life and had just celebrated their 43rd wedding anniversary last week. Frank was very proud of the fact that he had spent all 66 years of his life living and working on the family farm. This past Saturday evening, November 10th, Frank and Flora Ann had visited with his mother in Havre, after which they went to a dance at the Eagles Lodge. While there, Frank suddenly collapsed and was taken to the Havre Hospital via ambulance. Resuscitative measures were to no avail, and he was pronounced dead in the emergency room.

Frank loved to dance, and it seems fitting that he left us doing something that he thoroughly enjoyed and without apparent pain or suffering.

In his younger years Frank liked to hunt and fish. In more recent years he spent his leisure time working in his shop or in his vegetable garden. For hobbies he collected old radios and tools, and enjoyed trap-shooting. Frank was a self-educated mechanic and was very good when it came to fixing machinery or farm equipment. He was also an excellent sausage-maker and was proud of some old family recipes that had been handed down through several generations. Frank enjoyed playing cards, especially pinochle with his mother and grandson. He was a very patient and efficient man when it came to shopping. When time permitted, he liked to browse at garage sales. Frank liked to visit with people and was especially fond of the Rudyard and surrounding community. His family were important to him. He and Flora had just returned from a month's visit with their daughter in Oregon, and the family is thankful that they had spent this recent time together.

Survivors include his wife, Flora Ann of Rudyard; daughter, Mrs. Steve (Betty Ann) Heydon of Madras, Oregon; 2 grandsons, Lowell and Darin; mother, Bertha of Havre; 2 brothers, Paul of Mesa, Arizona and Leroy of Havre; 4 sisters Lydia Gustafson of Big Fork, Ruth Bley of Great Falls, (twin-sister) Lorretta Burnell of Havre, and Lorraine Svejkovsky of Conrad; and numerous nephews and nieces. Frank was preceded in death by his father and a sister (Clara Teel).

MARY LYNN (HILL) BUCK
Born: July 9, 1895 - Died: December 17, 1984

Liberty County Times

Mary Lynn Buck

Mary Lynn Hill was born in Mount Hope, Iowa July 9, 1895. She was the eldest of 12 children born to Ernest Lynn Hill and Flora Cameron. Her family lived in Florida for awhile, and following her secondary education she began nurses training at a Presbyterian school in New Orleans.

After her family moved to Montana, Mary transferred to the Great Falls Deaconess Hospital nurse's school and graduated as an R.N. in 1920. That same year she married a Great Falls policeman named George Knutson and from that marriage came two daughters. They made their home in Great Falls until George's death in 1932.

About a year later Mary was wed to Garnett Barrett in Great Falls. She remained there until 1938, when she came to Chester and opened the "Mary Lynn Hospital." This hospital was a ten-bed facility in a private residence.

Mary's third marriage was to Ray E. Buck in 1939. They ran the hospital until 1947, when they closed it after the only doctor left town. Mary and Ray moved to Great Falls where she continued in the nursing profession. A few years later they moved to California, where Ray died in 1962. Mary came back to Chester and worked for a while at the new hospital here and then went to Wolf Point to manage the Faith Lutheran Nursing Home. She retired in 1965, just ten days short of her 70th birthday. She has made her home in Chester since.

Mary moved into the Sweetgrass Lodge in 1979, but following a broken hip in 1980, she transferred to the rest home. She died there the morning of Monday, December 17, at the age of 89 years.

Mary was a past member of the Eastern Star and Rebekah Lodge No. 64. She had served as District Director of the Liberty County B.P.W. Club in 1969. She was a staunch Republican and well-read on political issues. Her membership in the Methodist Church dates back many years.

Mary enjoyed both vegetable and flower gardening and especially loved to raise African violets. She also embroidered and crocheted. She was a Scotch lady of the old school who believed that nothing should be wasted. Her housekeeping skills were excellent and she was very organized. She was proud to have been a "Soddy," that is to have lived in the ers of sod huts.

Mary loved her family and her heritage and was very interested in geneology. Many things can be said, but her main role of life was nursing. In 1970 she was honored by the Deaconess Alumni Association for her 50 years of nursing service. Her hard work at the "Mary Lynn Hospital" was actually the seed that grew to become the present Liberty County Hospital and Nursing Home. Of additional interest is the fact that during those eight years she worked in her own hospital, she helped delivery 245 babies, including two of her own grandchildren.

Mary is survived by a daughter, Mary Lynn Cicon of Chester; 1 grandson and his family, Howard, Deanie, Gayle and Pam; 1 granddaughter and her family, Glenda, Bill, Tamara, Jim and Erin; 1 granddaughter-in-law and her family, Maureen, Jodi and Kevin; 1 brother, Howard Hill of Point Arena, California; 3 sisters, Nellie Jeffers of Calgary, Alberta, Viola Dickson of Yuma, Arizona, and Elsie Koepke of Chehalis, Washington; and numerous nephews and nieces. In 1918 Ray was inducted into the U.S. Army and was honorably discharged the following year. He returned to the Marias River country and continued ranching. On April 7th, 1922 he married Elizabeth Muir in Fort Benton. They worked on various ranches in the Highwood/Geraldine area until the early 1930's, when they came to the Sweetgrass Hills to farm the Muir family homestead. Ray worked intermittently for the Liberty County road department for about 30 years. Following the death of Elizabeth in 1960, Ray retired. He has remained in Chester since. On the evening of Friday, November 23rd, Ray was found dead at his residence. He was 87 years old.

Ray was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church and the Chester American Legion. He was a very independent man. Because he had been in the Chester community for some 45 years, he knew and enjoyed a lot of local history. He also told many colorful stories about the Geraldine area. Ray loved horses and cattle and hunting and fishing. Since his retirement he had kept himself busy in his vegetable garden or behind a good book. He was well-read and felt it important to stay up on current affairs. Ray was mechanically inclined and had kept his '56 Chevy "running like a top" all these years. He was proud to be one of the few remaining World War I vets left in this community. Ray enjoyed his grandchildren and had shared many hours of nursery rhymes with them. His quiet, peaceful nature will long be remembered.

VEVA LENORE (STARCHER) DAMMROSE

Born: April 29, 1887 - Died: April 3, 1984

Liberty County Times

April 12, 1984

Veva L. Dammrose

Veva Lenore Starcher was born in Washington County, Kansas April 29, 1887. Her parents were Lafayette and Sarah (Breckenridge) Starcher, and she was the fourth of six children. Veva was baptized Methodist. At age 5 she moved with her family to Idaho where she received her education near Lewiston. She lived and worked with her family until her marriage to Ernest F. Dammrose December 27, 1905. Together they farmed the Dammrose family farm near Reubens, Idaho until 1910, when they came to Montana. They filed a homestead near Highwood (20 miles southwest of Fort Benton), and they farmed and ranched there until their retirement in 1943. They moved to Belt. Ernest died in 1949. Veva remained in Belt until 1969; she lived in the "Doc" Steward house for 10+ years. From Belt she went to Big Sandy. In 1976 she broke her leg and moved to the Liberty County Rest Home in Chester. Veva died there on the early morning of Tuesday, April 3. She was just 26 days shy of being 97 years old.

Veva came from a very musical family. She loved to sing, and in her youth she played the piano and the guitar. She was a typical homesteader's wife in the fact that she helped with the farming operations, including the milking and raising chickens. She was a concerned mother when it came to nutrition and was very strict with her children on the use of the English language. She liked to crochet and sew, and made a lot of quilts for family members over the years. Veva had been a loyal church member at the Belt Methodist Parish and was also active in the church circle. In her quiet hours she loved to read or do crossword puzzles. Prior to breaking her leg she was very active; in fact, she enjoyed taking long walks even into her 80's. Veva loved to dance and play games, especially pinochle, bridge, scrabble and bingo. Because she lived almost a century, she was the last original homesteader from the North Bench area of Highwood. Her family remembers her as a proud, prim, and appreciative lady who always showed great concern and compassion for others. Because of this her memory will not be soon forgotten.

Survivors include 3 daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Lander Hubber of Great Falls, Mrs. Eleanor Bissell of Great Falls, and Mrs. Ed (Jean) Reynolds of Hamilton; 11 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; 5 great-great-grandchildren; and numerous nephews and nieces. Veva was preceded in death not only by her parents and husband, but also by 1 son in infancy, 1 grandson, 4 brothers (Otis, Carl, Roy and Ora) and 1 sister (Lean).

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Friday, April 6 at the Hillcrest Lawn Memorial Chapel in Great Falls. The Reverend Jack H. Severns officiated. Special music provided by a small choir of Veva's grandchildren included "The Old Rugged Cross" and "What A Friend We Have In Jesus." Grandsons serving as pallbearers were Bruce, Douglas, and James Lander; Tom Cummings; Don and Ernie Bissell; Ron Christofferson; Ron Brownlie; and Richard Reynolds. Interment was in the Great Falls Highland Cemetery with arrangements by the Rockman Funeral Chapel of Chester.

Ernest Donald Gardner was born March 1st, 1907 in Tacoma, Washington. He was the only child born to Halvor and Annie (Olson) Gardner. Ernest was baptized in the Lutheran faith. His folks came to Montana in 1908 and homesteaded 15 miles east of Shelby. They built and opened a store on their land near the railroad, and the town of Devon actually grew on their homestead. Ernest attended elementary school in Devon and graduated from high school in Choteau. He graduated from the Lutheran Bible Institute in Washington and returned to Montana to business college in Missoula. His father died in 1931, so he returned to Devon to help with the store and farming operations. In 1942 he enlisted in the U.S. Army and served in England. He was honorably discharged in 1945 with the rank of Staff Sergeant. Ernest returned to Devon and his job as postmaster, a position he held from 1935-1956. His mother died in 1954. He continued managing the store until New Years Eve of 1975, when he closed up shop and retired. Ernest maintained his residence there until his death the morning of Friday, January 20th. He died at the Chester Hospital at the age of 76 years.

Ernest collected guns, rocks, and antiques. He was a self-educated, soft-spoken guy who kept a relatively low profile. Still, he made friends easily.

He had that "pioneer spirit" about him that is so rare in this day-and-age.

Ernest is survived by cousins only, and his long-time friend and companion, Havreen Frydenlund.

Ernest was cremated per his own wishes. The cremated remains were interred in the family plot at the Devon Cemetery. JONATHAN PAGE JARRETT

Born: February 18, 1971 - Died: March 11, 1984

March 10, 1984

Funeral held for Jonathan Jarrett

Jonathan Page Jarrett was born in Butte, Montana on February 18th, 1971. He was one of two children born to Barbara Anderson (formerly of Joplin) and Leonard Jarrett.

Jon was baptized into the Lutheran faith in Joplin as an infant. He began his schooling at McDonald Elementary in Spokane, and attended other schools in the Spokane area. At time of his death, he was a student at the Mountain View Junior High School in Otis Orchards, Washington, where he was involved in wrestling, soccer and other school sports.

Jon loved hunting, in fact, had been hunting with a friend on the morning of his disappearance, March 11th. They were in a wooded area several miles from his home in Otis Orchards near the Spokane River. Jon apparently attempted to wade across the river, but was pulled under by currents. Authorities tried for many days to recover the body, but to no avail. Jon's remains were discovered on April 30th, some 15 miles downstream near the Upper River Dam. No foul play is suspected and the death is attributed to drowning.

Jon was a special kid in his own way. Whenever he got interested in something, he would read magazines and books to learn whatever he could on the subject. For example, he loved horses and had two of his own, for which he took keen interest in their care and well-being. Jon was also an avid sports fan. He loved all kinds of sports, but was especially fond of the Seattle Seahawks football team. He could easily name players, positions, and statistics of all kinds in all sports. Although only 13 years old, he seemed much older because of his interests and eagerness to learn.

Jon's survivors include his parents, Ted and Barbara Turney of Otis Orchards; sister, Jae Marie Jarrett of Otis Orchards; 3 step-brothers, Shawn, Jeff, and Joe Turney of Springdale, Washington; maternal grandparents, Enoch and Maggie Anderson of Joplin, Montana; paternal grandmother, Hazel Crossen of San Francisco, California; and numerous uncles, aunts and cousins.

A memorial service was held for Jon on March 22nd in Otis Orchards. Graveside services were held on Sunday afternoon, May 6th, at the Joplin Cemetery. Reverend John Olson of the Joplin Bethel Church officiated at the graveside rites. Following the comittal service, a luncheon was given to family and friends by the church ladies at Kjos Hall. Local funeral arrangements were by Rockman Chapel, Chester.

Funeral held for Wally Krueger

Waldemar Louis Krueger was born in Berwick, North Dakota on September 23rd, 1905. His parents were Gustav Krueger and Emilie Wendland, and he was the youngest of eight children. He came to Montana in 1910 with his family, who homesteaded 1½ miles northwest of Rudyard. Wally attended schools in Rudyard, and then helped farm the home place. After his father died in 1943, Wally and his brother, George, took over the farming operations. They remained on the farm until 1975, when they retired and moved into town. Wally's health remained good until four months ago. He died Monday afternoon, February 20th, at the Liberty County Hospital in Chester. He was 78 years old.

Wally had been a member of the St. John's Lutheran Church in Rudyard, which is now affiliated with St. Paul's Church in Havre. He was also involved in the Rudyard Senior Citizens. In his early days he enjoyed basketball, fishing and taxidermy work. He was a 'cowboy by heart' in the fact that he liked Western clothing, music and rodeos. George and Wally hardly missed a rodeo, and at the same time they liked to explore museums around the state.

Neither George nor Wally married, so they became best friends and companions. When George went into the Havre Lutheran Home about 3 years ago, Wally's dedication continued in that he made the trip from Rudyard to Havre on a daily basis to visit with George. As a hobby Wally enjoyed collecting, cutting, polishing and setting semi-precious stones. He loved to read and had an excellent memory. He could best be described by those who knew him as simply a kind and humble man...

Survivors include 1 brother, George of Havre; 1 sister, Lydia Langel of Rudyard; and numerous nephews and nieces. Wally was preceded in death by his parents, by 2 brothers, and by 2 sisters.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Thursday, February 23rd, at the Rockman Funeral Chapel in Chester. The Reverend Donald Ryding of Havre officiated. Iris White played the organ and Joe Horel sang "Nearer My God To Thee" and "What A Friend We Have In Jesus." Graveside services were in the Rudyard Cemetery, after which a coffee hour was held at the home of Albert and Lydia Hansen in Rudyard.

CURTIS RUFFIN LAKEY

Born: June 1, 1912 - Died: April 21, 1984

Liberty County Times

April 26, 1984

Curtis Ruffin Lahey was born on June 1st, 1912 on the Lahey family homestead located 12 miles northwest of Chester, Montana. He was the eldest son of Alexander Lenington Lahey and Melvina Grace Abel. Curt attended country school in a one-room building located on a trail between the Hull and Lahey farms. He transferred into Chester High School where he played clarinet in the school orchestra. He boarded in town and worked parttime at the old Walden Hardware Store. After a few years he returned to help on the farm so his younger siblings could attend school. In the winter quarter of 1927, Curtis went to the college in Bozeman to take an agriculture course. He returned to the family farm until 1943, when he was inducted into the U.S. Army. While in the service, he worked as an airplane mechanic's crew chief and attained the rank of sergeant. After serving in England, France and Germany, he was honorably discharged in 1946. Curt returned to Montana. On a cold winter day on October 28th, 1946 he married Alice Helen Moog at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Inverness. The roads were treacherous that day, so the honeymoon got only as far as Great Falls. As it turned out, the motel owners were family friends, so there were many visitors at that motel and it became kind of a "community honeymoon." Curt and Alice have lived and worked on the original family homestead since that time. Curt suffered a heart attack in 1977 which caused his personality to "mellow out," and he became a very relaxed and easy-going fellow. In June of 1983 he had surgery for colon cancer, which had already metastasized to his liver. He fought this debilitating disease to the very last minute of his life. Curt died on Holy Saturday, April 21st, at the Chester Hospital. He was 71 years old.

During World War II Curt meditated on the deep Christian faith of the Polish people confined in detention camps in Europe, so it prompted him to study Catholicism. He was later baptized on the Feast of the Assumption of Mary in August of 1946. Curt had strong feelings for the Blessed Mother, so he enjoyed praying the Rosary on a daily basis. He became very active in St. Mary's Church and served as an usher there for 37 years. Curt was a caring, loving man, both for family and community. He was one of Liberty County's first Soil Conservation District Supervisors, and spent many hours working on soil and water conservation throughout the state. He served on the ASCS committee for one 3-year term. When money was needed for the construction of the Chester Swimming Pool, he contributed a load of wheat with other good citizens. Curt served as treasurer of the Liberty County N.F.O. for 12 years and spent much time and money in efforts to keep the Inverness elevator solvent. In his younger years he was very active in community affairs, but his health kept him away from meetings in more recent years. He did maintain his memberships in the Chester V.F.W. and the local Knights of Columbus.

Curt loved to fish. He was an excellent carpenter and mechanic. He enjoyed reading, especially "National Geographic" and airplane magazines. As a hobby he liked to raise vegetables. Before his health failed, he and Alice attended the Governor's Prayer Breakfast on an annual basis. Because they lived right on the Whitlash road, there was many a cold night that he got out of a nice warm bed to help some stranded person out of a snow drift or muddy ditch. Curt loved farming and was a good steward of the land. Curt was a very peaceful and reasonable man. He never argued with his wife, nor did he ever complain, even towards the end when he was real sick. His family will miss him deeply...

Survivors include his wife, Alice of Chester; 14 children, Mary Rasmussen of Reno, Nevada, Carole Schile of Great Falls, Beverly Perry of Houston, Texas, Ruth of Seattle, Washington, Kay of Boise, Idaho, Christine of Spokane, Washington, Joanne Drake of Pensacola, Florida, Greg of Seattle, Washington, Nathan of Chester, Thalia Biglen of San Francisco, California, Mark of Chester, Colette of Great Falls, Roger of Bozeman, and Kelly of Bozeman; 2 brothers, Houston of Terry, Montana and Troy of Chester; 2 sisters, Ethel Rasmussen of Tacoma, Washington and Irene Mattson of Chester; 13 grandchildren; and numerous nephews and nieces. Curt was preceded in death by his parents, a brother (Gordon), and a stillborn son.

Funeral mass was held at 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, April 24th, at St. Mary's Church in Chester. Concelebrants were Father John Coady and Father Rene Petit. Special music was provided by member of St. Mary's choir, who provided a guitar and vocal ensemble. Songs included "Prayer of St. Francis," "Ave Maria," "He is Risen," and "I Am the Resurrection." Ushers were Eldon Graff and Gordon Jorgenson. Friends serving as pallbearers included Andrew Campros, Bill Cole, Henry Hawks, Ed Cole, Lawrence Frederickson and Ben Oraw. Honorary bearers included the local Knights of Columbus and the Chester V.F.W. and Legionnaires. Presentation of gifts was by Bob and Una Moog, and servers were Ivan Wodarz and Gordon Standiford. Military rites were held at the Chester Cemetery. A memorial luncheon followed back at St. Mary's. Funeral arrangements were by Rockman Chapel.

CURTIS R. LAKEY

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

MARTIN DALE LYDERS
Born: May 29, 1932 - Died: October 6, 1984
Liberty County Times
October 11, 1984

Martin Dale Lyders was born May 29th, 1932 at his family home in Chester. He was the youngest of six children born to Anna A. Swenson and Martin H. Lyders. Dale was baptized and confirmed at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Chester. He attended Chester schools, graduating from high school in 1950. Dale then enlisted in the U.S. Air Force and served from 1951-53. After his honorable discharge he returned to Chester and began a farming partnership 20 miles north of town with Al Ploss. Dale remained in the Air Force Reserves for the next five years. On July 26th, 1956 he married Loretta Backen in Chester. They made their home on the farm until 1971, when they sold their interests in the place and relocated to a new farm located just northwest of Chester. They have lived and worked on this new farm since.

At the early age of 39 Dale suffered a heart attack. Although he had resumed a normal active life these past 13 years, he did suffer some intermittent heart complications. Following a five-day stay at the Deaconess Hospital in Great Falls, Dale died on the early morning of Saturday, October 6th. He was just 52 years old.

Dale and Loretta had been active in the Trinity Church north of Lothair in the 1960's. They later held membership at Our Savior's in Chester, where Dale had served as past council president. Dale enjoyed music and singing, and had participated in the local barbershop singing group in recent years. Although not a carpenter by trade, he enjoyed the work and was very skilled at

it. At one time he liked trapshooting and had an unfulfilled desire to learn to fly. They had a motor home and enjoyed camping and travelling. Dale's greatest love was farming, and he was always reading farm literature for new ideas and techniques. He was an unselfish person who always put his family ahead of himself. His pleasant personality and friendly nature will be missed by those who knew him.

Survivors include his wife, Loretta of Chester; one daughter and son-in-law, Tierney and Rick Johnson of Medicine Hat, Alberta; one son and daughter-in-law, Marty and Laurie of Chester; three grandchildren, Noel, Maithili and Andru; one brother, Verne of Seattle, Washington; two sisters, Lucille Kammerzell of Lakeside and Jean Breisacker of Los Alamitos, California; and numerous uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces and cousins. Dale was preceded in death by his parents and two sisters (Eileen Lyders and Margaret Hendrickson).

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday, October 9th, at Our Savior's Lutheran Church. Reverend Wayne Bungum officiated. Special messages were provided by Dale's son-in-law, Rick Johnson, and long-time friend, Leonard Matteson. Music was provided by Jan Christofferson and Wayne Wardell. Vocal numbers were "Railway to Heaven" and "Shall I Empty-Handed Be." Good friend Steve Brown served as usher. During the memorial services, Dale's remains were scattered over the place he loved most, his farm. Funeral arrangements were by Rockman Chapel. A coffee hour was held in the church basement following services.

TURAN C. "RED" MORRIS

Born: November 11, 1903 - Died: July 21, 1984

Liberty County Times

August 2, 1984

Funeral held for Red Morris, 80

T. C. "Red" Morris was born in Lindale, Texas on November 11th, 1903. His parents were William and Dora (Hollis) Morris, and he was one of eight children. His family ran a blackberry farm and raised Jersey cattle. Red was baptized at the Demascus Baptist Church and attended schools at Nebo and Lindale. Of interest was the fact that he played basketball on the state championship team while at Lindale. Following his education, Red became interested in rose production. He bought the first tractor and plowed the first rose garden in Smith County, Texas. Nearby Tyler later became known as the "Rose Capitol of the World." Red then took a mechanics job at a Ford company in Shreveport, Louisiana. A short while later he went to work for Hope Engineering, which put in the pipeline from Wascum, Louisiana to Chicago, Illinois. His job with the engineering firm included driving caterpillar and bending pipe, and he worked several years before coming to Montana in 1930. While working on a pipeline from Great Falls into Canada, Red met a Whitlash girl named Dorothy Thompson. They were married in Havre on November 20th, 1930. During the next year they continued in the construction business in Texas, Missouri, Illinois and Iowa. They returned to Montana in 1931 and rented the old Holley ranch near Whitlash for the next 5 years. In 1937 they purchased the Cliff Toole ranch near there, and later bought the Arthur Fey place. They have lived and worked on their ranch ever since. On the afternoon of Saturday, July 21st, Red accidentally tipped over a hay wagon on the Strawberry Road near Whitlash. He was taken by ambulance to the Toole County Hospital in Shelby and died there later that evening. He was 80 years old.

Red had served as president of the Montana Hereford Association. He helped start the Marias Hereford Association, and also helped organize the associations in Billings and Lewistown. Red was a quiet man and a deep thinker. Many thought he was ahead of his time when it came to conservation of his grasslands and practicing innovative ranching methods. Red has spent the past 53 years in the ranching business with his wife, and he has loved every minute of it. Most every out-building on the place he built by hand, he always had a nice flower garden with Texas roses in it, he loved animals (especially his cattle and dogs), and he enjoyed raising fish in his reservoirs. For both relaxation and education, he was a religious subscriber and reader of the Western Livestock Reporter. Red kept himself fit and trim, both physically and mentally, and this was the key to his youthful appearance and attitude. Three events that were very meaningful in the lives of Red and Dot included their trip across the United States on the Centennial Train in 1964, the celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary in 1980, and a "love boat" Caribbean cruise to the Virgin Islands in 1979. Although they never had any children, they lead a full life with their family, friends, and farm...

Red's survivors include his wife, Dot of Whitlash; 1 brother, Bill of Lindale, Texas; 2 sisters, Betty Milles and Berta Crawford, both of Tyler, Texas; and numerous nephews and nieces. Red was preceded in death by his parents, 2 brothers (Weldon and Evert), and 2 baby sisters (Violet and Martha).

Funeral services were held at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, July 27th, at the Community Presbyterian Church in Whitlash. Services were conducted by Reverend Grover Briggs of Shelby and Student Pastor Tammy Lindahl of Whitlash. Special vocal music by Carole Hanson included "Somewhere My Love," "Beulah Land," and "I Want to be Happy." Betty Skinner was the pianist, and she played several songs including a Red and Dot favorite, "Tea For Two." Friends serving as pallbearers were Bill Strunk, Lyle Knudson, Troy Lakey, Robert Griffin, Raymond Fritz, Leonard Fritz, Ben Taylor, Don Loranger, Jim McKechnie, Nelson Bingham and Norman Waite. Following interment in the Whitlash Cemetery, a memorial luncheon was held in the Whitlash Liberty Hall. Funeral arrangements were by Rockman Chapel, Chester.

Sarah Oscarson dies

RUDYARD NEWS
By Frances Evenson

Friends and neighbors of Sarah Oscarson were saddened by her sudden passing. She passed away quietly at her home north of Malta, but first she called and visited with her daughter, Shirley in Ohio, and had a phone conversation with her sister, Mabel in Seattle.

Sarah Martinson Oscarson was proud of her ancestry, and felt her heritage was important to her. She started teaching school in early adulthood, and when conversing about someone, more times than not, he was identified as "one of my former students."

Sarah married David in 1933. Three children came to bless this marriage, Miriam, Shirley and Edward. They lived in the north Rudyard community when their children were small, and farmed there until after they were grown. A good education was No. 1 priority for her family. Being an educator herself, she put much emphasis on education. In spite of hard times, seven bushel an acre crops and $1.00 a bushel for wheat, they found a way. All three children received a good education, both in school and in the church.

Edward's life was snuffed out with cancer when he was still a very young man. Miriam passed, away suddenly this past January, leaving a husband and two children. Sarah's husband, David and daughter Shirley remain to mourn her passing.

Sarah loved to visit. For several years she was not able to work, but was the guiding light. "Uf da" when things turned out not as expected. She accepted 'making do' as a challenge. A bit of philosophy she endorsed was "If I cannot have what I'd like, I will like what I have."

Several years ago, through Sarah's initiative they went to Europe as a family, Norway and Sweden and visited their ancestral home. She valued her heritage and believed in traditions, and made it possible for her children to become knowledgeable as well. They visited many historical places in eastern U.S.A. New York City, Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C. and many other special places. She cherished antiques left her by her ancestors, and loved to talk about the early days.

At Sarah's funeral, the message was from Proverbs Chapter 31—reflections, describing a virtuous woman. A former student of twenty-seven years ago had this to say, "She liked what she was doing, folks liked what she did." A grand lady has passed on. Sympathy is extended to her family and many friends.

Buelah Marie Standiford was born in Avalance, Wisconsin on May 31st, 1902. Her parents were Nellie Melvin and John Standiford, and she was the eldest of five children. When Buelah was 8 years old, her family came to Montana and filed a homestead 10 miles west of Chester. She grew up on the farm and attended the Secara school near there. In 1916 a new 4-room schoolhouse was built in Lothair, so Buelah finished her education there. In 1919 she went to college in Dillon and received her teaching certificate. She started her independent life as a teacher at the Furnell school near Gold Butte in 1920. She also taught at the Hill school just south of the Sweetgrass Hills. It was at a St. Patrick's Day dance in Whitlash that Buelah met her husband-to-be, Richard Wickum. They were married on August 16th, 1922 in Havre. They made their home on the old Cook place, a farm which they cherished until their retirement in 1957. They moved to Great Falls and lived there for the next ten years. Dick's health deteriorated, so they moved back to Chester. Dick died at the local nursing home in 1969. Buelah has lived and maintained her own home in Chester since. Although Buelah had numerous physical ailments over the years, her mental health remained excellent to the end. Following a week's stay at the Chester Hospital, she died Sunday evening, September 2nd. She was 82 years young...

Buelah had been active in the Trinity Church north of Lothair, Faith Lutheran in Great Falls, and Our Savior's Lutheran in Chester. She had served as clerk of the old Wickum country school for a number of years. Buelah and Dick were an active couple and hardworking Christians. Buelah made sure her time was well-spent — be it housekeeping, baking, or gardening — but she always made time somewhere in her busy day for her children. She became known to one and all as "Gramma Wickum". Buelah loved to read the Bible, and the "23rd Psalm" was one of her favorite verses. She liked to play the piano and sing. She had an excellent voice, even in her later years, and was extremely fond of the old time hymns and Christmas caroles. She was an excellent cook, and the grandkids have fond memories of those "good smells" from Gramma's kitchen! Even after her retirement, her hands were never idle. She crocheted, knitted, sewed, and made lots of quilts for family and friends. She kept diaries for years, and as a hobby she enjoyed China painting. Buelah always had a bountiful vegetable and flower garden. She could raise the most beautiful roses, yet the beauty of the roses couldn't match the beauty of Buelah! She was a very kind, loving, dignified lady. She was prepared for death and the peace that comes with it, and she left the following message to her family: "Love one another as I have loved you, and as Christ loves each of you!"

Buelah's survivors include 2 sons, Roy and Richard, both of north Chester; 1 daughter, Nellie Diemert of Great Falls; 1 brother, Glen Standiford of Lothair; 2 sisters, June McDowell of Shelby and Barbara Backen of Lothair; 1 sister-in-law, Hazel Standiford of Chester; 23 grandchildren; 50 great-grandchildren; and numerous nephews and nieces. Buelah was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, a daughter (Marjorie), a brother (Gordon), and a son-in-law (Clark).

Funeral services were held at Our Savior's Lutheran Church on Wednesday, September 5th, with Reverend Wayne Bungum officiating. Iva Kolstad served as reader and shared with the congregation "The 23rd Psalm". Gramma loved the Lord's music and pre-selected her own songs. "How Great Thou Art" was sung by John Hofer, "In the Garden" was sung by Wayne Wardell, and "You Have This Moment Today" was sung by the trio of Ken Bartle, Loren Hawks and Carole Hanson. The congregation sang "Just As I Am" and "What A Friend We Have In Jesus". Dorothy Heydon served as organist, and the "Evening Prayer" was played as part of her prelude. Pallbearers were the oldest grandsons, including Frank and Jim Sutton, Dennis Diemert and Wayne, Steve and Warren Wickum. Honorary bearers included all of Gramma's grandchildren and their spouses, and her great-grandchildren. Friends serving as ushers were Leonard Matteson and Arnold Jeppesen. Interment was in the Chester Cemetery, followed by a luncheon at the church. Arrangements were by Rockman Chapel. A memorial fund will be established at the Liberty County Hospital per Buelah's wishes.
