JESSE RICHARD BLAIR
Born: January 10, 1902 - Died: January 23, 1985
Liberty County Times
January 31, 1985

Jesse Richard Blair was born in Kalispell, Montana January 10th, 1902. He was one of nine children born to Fred Blair and Anna Cox. Jesse was baptized Methodist and attended schools in Kalispell. Because their Flathead Valley farm was too small to support nine children, the family came to the Chester community in 1917. They purchased the old Bourne-Hamilton farm located 16 miles north of Lothair. In those first years here, the farming business was depressed because of dry weather, so the Blair's got into the cattle and sheep business. Jesse remained on the family ranch and helped with the farming operations. November 9th, 1928 he married a neighbor girl, Ada Flo Henry, in Great Falls. Following the death of his parents, Jesse took over the ranch in 1940. He continued ranching until 1962, at which time he retired and his boys took over.

Jesse and Flo remained on the farm in their home until 1980, when they moved to Shelby. They lived in Shelby until November of 1984, when Flo brought Jess to the Chester Rest Home because of failing health. Jess died at the Liberty County Hospital the late evening of Wednesday, January 23rd, at the age of 83 years.

Jess had been a member of the Chester United Methodist Church and had served on the church board. After moving to Shelby, they transferred their membership to the Methodist Church there. In his younger years Jess enjoyed playing baseball, but in later years he limited his sporting activities to fishing. Each summer on the farm he liked to raise a big vegetable garden. In their early married years, Jess and Flo enjoyed dancing. Jess liked to play cards, and was especially fond of pitch, whist and pinochle. He was not a real hobby person because most of his time and interest was spent in farm and ranch activities. People were important to him and he loved his family.

Survivors include his wife, Ada Flo of the Sweetgrass Lodge in Chester; two sons, Cliff of Hobson and Floyd of Denton: one daughter, Mrs. Joe (Carolyn) Seidlitz of Chester; four sisters, Myrtle Forrest of Puyallup, Washington, Bertha Rambo of Whitefish, Beatrice York of Missoula, and Ellen Cowan of Kalispell; 13 grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and numerous uncles, aunts, nephews and nieces. Jesse was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers (Bert and Harvey), and two sisters (Susie and Libby).

Funeral services were held at the Chester United Methodist Church Saturday, January 26th, at 2:00 p.m. The Reverend Nancy Wright officiated. Special music by the church choir included "How Great Thou Art" and "The Old Rugged Cross" with accompaniment by Meredith Anderson. The congregation sang "Softly and Tenderly." Ushers were Chris Frederickson and Leonard Mattox. Pallbearers included Jim Sharrard and five grandchildren, Jerry, Frank, Michael and Darwin Blair and Eugene Seidlitz. Memorial bearers were "all of Jess' many friends and neighbors." Burial was in the Chester Cemetery with arrangements by Rockman Chapel. Following graveside services, a luncheon was held at the church. Memorial gifts will be given to the National Arthritis Foundation.
Big Sandy resident dies

Richard Kenneth Bush, 77, long-time resident of Big Sandy, died in the Big Sandy Medical Center Friday, December 13th. He had been ill with cancer for two and a half years.

Born in Spokane August 26th, 1908, Dick lived in Washington with his family until they moved to this part of Montana when he was four years old. He attended school in the Eagleton community and high school in Big Sandy. As a young adult, he served three years with the Civil Conservation Corps and then returned to Big Sandy to ranch with his father.

December 12, 1939, Louise Lanning Jenkins and Richard were married in Great Falls. They ranching together for some time, and then operated Dick's Dairy in Big Sandy for ten years. In 1951 they returned to ranching and continued that for 16 years until retirement in 1967.

Dick's so-called retirement included working part-time for many years as an employee of Holland and Bonine, as a custodian at the Rohrer Memorial United Methodist Church, the Big Sandy Medical Center, and Big Sandy high School, and as a servant to the whole Big Sandy community—shoveling snow, delivering mail to shut-ins and generally cheering up everyone he would meet. He was a member of the Methodist Church for many years. He was also a member of Masonic Treasure Lodge #95. Dick's marvelous sense of humor endeared him to many friends near home and others very far away.

For most of his life his banjo was a regular companion. He played it with much vitality and was often sought out as a 'back-up' musician. Other interests were camping and traveling. Whether he was inside the Kremlin walls of Russia, the beaches of Bali, or the streets of Mexico City, he reached out with genuine friendliness to others, never letting culture or language stop him. In a foreign country or on the banks of the Missouri River, Dick Bush was always ready to visit with a stranger who soon became a friend. Even after he became seriously ill, he continued his storytelling and music making. Friends of all ages came to visit him right up to his death and he was always happy to see them.

Pallbearers were: Robert Gasvoda, Robert Lanning, David Clausen, Clair Sykes, Glenn Terry and Stuart Brown. Ushers were: Harry Kibbee.

Robert Marten and Marlyn Cornett.
Honorary pallbearers were: Jack Taylor, Frank O'Neil, Roy Pegar, Bill Snow, Warren Ross, Ted Worrall, Leon Jonson, Alvin Bitz, H.H. Bitz and Harold Michels.

Survivors include his wife, Louise; daughters, Judy Pleskac of Escondido, California, Patricia Ishatar of Barstow, California, Nicki Lubrich of Helena and Melanie Brown of Chester; son Jerry Jenkins of Lewistown; foster daughters Ruth Sykes of Fort Benton and Joan Gasvoda of Big Sandy; 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Burial was in the Big Sandy Cemetery. The family suggests memorials to the Big Sandy Medical Center.

JAMES "JIMMIE" HALVERSON
Born: November 24, 1888 - Died: June 15, 1985
Liberty County Times
June 20, 1985

Jim Halverson

James ("Jimmie") Halverson was born November 24th, 1888 in McIntosh, Minnesota. He was one of seven children born to Mary Arneson and William Halverson. Jim attended schools in McIntosh and was baptized and confirmed in the Norwegian Lutheran faith there. Following his education, he worked in the livery business with his family.

In 1910, when Jim was 21 years old, he came to Montana with his father. They flew a homestead 18 miles north of Galata. In those early years farming was a "hit-or-miss" business; that is, it was tough to break ground and get crops to grow. To stay busy and keep food on the table Jim worked various other jobs including harvesting in North Dakota and the Judith Basin, cutting hay on the Blackfeet Reservation, fixing machinery and cars in Galata, and helping gravel Highway 2 when it was built through the Hi-Line. In 1939 Jim wintered in Eugene, Oregon where he got into the carpentry business. He would buy old houses, fix them up, and then resell them. He continued running his farm until 1949, then leased it out. Although he lived in Oregon for 38 years, he still missed the old homestead, so he came back every summer to help out. Jim returned to Galata permanently in 1981, where he has lived on the farm near his brother's family, Sharon and Monte Lerum. Although his health had slipped a little this past year, Jim has remained active in the community. In fact, Saturday evening (June 15th) he was attending the Galata Parish 75th Anniversary services, where he was recognized as the church's oldest living member, when he became ill. He was taken by ambulance to the Shelby Hospital, but resuscitative efforts were to no avail. Jim was 96 1/2 years old.

Jim had also been active in the Grandview Church in the north Galata country in years gone by. He had supported the Farmer's Union Cooperative in its early inception. Jim had been athletic in his younger days and enjoyed playing baseball and basketball. He remained an avid baseball fan and also enjoyed watching boxing events on television. He kept up on current affairs by listening to the news and by reading his favorite magazine, "Newsweek." Jim's hobbies over the years included dancing, billiards and cards; his favorite card game was "Rummy." He liked going to town and being with people. Although a very independent, private-type person, Jim still had a great love for people. He was recently interviewed for an article in the May-June issue of the "Montana Magazine," where he told of some interesting events in his life. He had been one of the "gate crashers" of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight in Shelby in 1923, he had attended the World's Fair in Chicago in 1933-34, and he had the rare privilege of drinking a beer in a Shelby saloon with the infamous Charlie Russell. When asked by the interviewer what Jim attributed his longevity to, he replied "being outside and working in the fresh air!"

Jim never married. His only survivors are nephews and nieces. Local relatives include Sharon, Monte, Dean and David Lerum of Galata. Jim was preceded in death by his parents, by three brothers (George, Andrew and Hank), and by three sisters (Hilda Gredvig, Caroline Jensen and Ella Larsen).

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday, June 20th, at 11:00 a.m. at the Galata Lutheran Church by Reverend Ken Bartle. Special music will be provided by the vocal duet of Jean Aspevig and Debra Steinbacker, who will sing "Behold the Host." The congregation will sing "Beautiful Savior" and "The King of Love My Shepherd Is." Hazel Munson will serve as accompanist.

Pallbearers will include Gordon Halverson, Lloyd Halverson, Roger Jensen, George Jensen, Dick Kennett and Hales Seales. Ushers will be Gary Aklestad, Duane Markson, Steve Seales and Leo Kolstad, and memorial bearers will include "all friends, neighbors and relatives." Interment will follow in the Galata Cemetery with arrangements by Rockman Chapel, Chester. A luncheon is planned back at the church.
CARL JOHN HARLEM
Born: October 15, 1897 - Died: August 28, 1985
Liberty County Times
September 5, 1985

Carl John Harlem was born in Norway on October 15th, 1897. He was one of three children born to the Emil Harlem family. His mother died when he was five years old. In 1903 Carl came to the United States with his father and two sisters. They settled in the Barton, North Dakota community, where he was educated. His father died when he was nine, so Carl was raised the next few years by a family in Barton. At age 13 Carl set out on his own, working as a farm laborer in North Dakota. In the final year of World War I, Carl was inducted into the army. He was on a U.S. troop train when the peace treaty was signed, so he was never shipped overseas. He often kidded that the enemy gave up because they heard that "Carl Harlem was coming over". Carl came to Montana in 1936 and worked various farm jobs along the hi-line. He married Mary Jane Furseth in Great Falls on June 5th, 1944. Carl re-enlisted in the U.S. Army during the outbreak of World War II, but served in a stateside position because he was almost 45 years old. He was honorably discharged in December of 1944 and returned to Chester. Carl continued farming, and then worked as a bartender in his later years at the Golden West and Laas Bar. He retired in 1963, but worked as a handyman helper in the years that followed for Carl Yurman and Arman Anderson. Carl's wife became ill in the 1970's and moved to the rest home. Carl remained dedicated and loyal to her, making many daily trips to the nursing home. She died on November 19th, 1975. The following year, Carl moved to the self-care wing of the rest home. He was transferred into full-nursing service in 1982 and has lived there since.

The morning of Wednesday, August 28th, Carl died at the Liberty County Hospital. He was just 2 months shy of being 88 years old.

Carl had been a life-time member of the Chester American Legion. In 1976 he was honored as Liberty County's Bi-Centennial King. He was an avid pinochle player and baseball fan. He had made several fishing trips to the west coast with local friends, which he thoroughly enjoyed. Carl was very satisfied with his life. He loved to eat and socialize with people. He had a quick wit and good sense of humor, and all of the nurses at the rest home enjoyed him. He was known for singing little songs--little diddies that he had made up over the years. He always seemed to be the "life of the party", be it at work or at play.

Although his family was small, he had a host of good friends...

Survivors include two nieces, Mrs. Ernest (Verda) Evans of Inverness and Mrs. Bill (Donna) Kuder of Spokane Washington; step-daughter, Mrs. Bob (Marian) Amandson of Weaverville, California; sister-in-law Evelynia Reed of Hinkley, Minnesota; and several great-nephews and nieces.

Carl was preceded in death not only by his wife and parents, but also by his two sisters (Marie Green and Emily Harlem).

Funeral services were held at 4:00 p.m. Saturday, August 31st, at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Chester. The Reverend Wayne Bungum officiated. Special music by the congregation included "The Old Rugged Cross" and "How Great Thou Art", with accompaniment by Melanie Brown. Services for Alice Heimbigner

Alice Agnes Shettel was born in Murdock, Minnesota December 20th, 1907. She was one of ten children born to Cynthia Iona Snider and John Nathan Shettel. She came to Montana as a child in 1912 with her family, who homesteaded in the Bisoli community west of Joplin. Alice was baptized here in Montana by a traveling Methodist minister. She attended the Buelow country school near the farm. April 14th, 1927 she married Walter C. Heimbigner in Havre. They farmed near Chester on the old Nordstrom place, and then later on the McMaster farm. In 1953 they moved into Chester and ran the Husky service station. Walt eventually took a job as maintenance man at the courthouse until his retirement in 1969. Alice kept busy as a homemaker. Walt died in Havre on May 13th, 1982. Alice continued to live in their Chester home, where she died in her sleep the early morning of Saturday, November 16th. She was just one month shy of being 78 years old.

Alice was a member of the Chester United Methodist Church. She was a good Christian lady, both in action and in deed. She loved her fellow man and was a faithful reader of her Bible every night before bedtime. Her hobbies included crocheting, quilting and embroidery. In the summer months she liked to work in the yard, and was especially proud of her strawberry patch. Alice had several collections, including salt and pepper shakers, Avon bottles, and photo albums of her family. Alice loved her family, and they were first and foremost on her list of priorities. "Work" should have been her middle name, especially in those early years when times were tough. She worked hard - whether it was picking rock, digging fence post holes, or hauling hay - and she never complained. Although Alice was not an extrovert, she did like visiting with people whenever the opportunity arose. She had a special love for children, and one of her family's fondest memories was the way she used to rock and sing her grandkids to sleep. Alice was a very dedicated wife and had never really gotten over the loss of her husband, Walt. Her family finds comfort in the thought that they are finally together at peace again...

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Irvin (Ruby) Borst of Havre, Mrs. Clarence (Opal) Borske, Sr. of Great Falls, Mrs. David (Pearl) Morton of Culloida, West Virginia, and Mrs. Jerry (Donna) Perdue of Chester; two sons, Roy and Donald, both of Chester; two sisters, Clara Hadford of Joplin and Lois Clements of Missoula; two brothers, Alva and Clarence Shettel, both of Chester; 19 grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; and numerous nephews and nieces. Alice was preceded in death not only by her parents and husband, but also by four grandchildren, two brothers (Levi and Roy), and three sisters (Florence and twin sisters in infancy).

Funeral services were held Wednesday, November 20th, at 2 p.m. in the Chester United Methodist Church. Reverend Daniel Clark officiated with assistance from Pastor Wayne Bungum. Organist, Iris White, played one of Alice's favorite hymns, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus," and then accompanied the congregation who sang "The Old Rugged Cross." A vocal duet by John Seidlitz and Dean Fox included "Beyond the Sunset" and "In the Garden." Pallbearers were Jim and Jerry Shettel, Lyle and Elmer Hadford, Larry Lambott and Harry Heimbigner, Jr. Ushers were Darby O'Brien and Charles Green. Memorial bearers included "all of Alice's grandchildren." Burial was in the Chester Cemetery with arrangements by Rockman Chapel. A luncheon followed at the church.
Margaret Anna Heintz

Margaret Anna Martha Heintz of Lewistown, Montana died Thursday, August 1 at the Central Montana Hospital at the age of 79 years and three months. She had been ill with bone cancer for more than three years.

Margaret had been a resident of Montana since the age of eleven, moving with her parents Edward and Bertha Mottaz from Chaska, Minnesota to Rudyard in 1917. Her parents constructed the town's second hotel, the Rudyard Hotel, the same year. The building is now used for apartments.

It was in the same year that her future husband, Carl C. Heintz, then 21 years of age, began farming just a half mile west of Rudyard. Six years later, in March, 1923, they were married. In March, 1944, the family sold the farm and purchased a farm at Moccasin, in Judith Basin County. Carl died a decade later, in December, 1954.

Nine children were born to Carl and Margaret, two of whom preceded their mother in death—the youngest son Robert, and Marvin.

The couple's only daughter and youngest child, Carole Knudson, cared for her mother during her three-plus years struggle with bone cancer. Other surviving sons and daughters-in-law include: Lloyd and Ann of Lewistown, Howard and Maydene of Quincy, Washington, James and Leora of Spokane, Washington, Leonard and June of Belgrade, Montana, William of Sonoma, California, and Fred and Cheryl of Columbia Falls, Montana.

Heintz is also survived by five sisters and a brother: Edna Petty of McMinnville, Oregon, Idella Green of Spokane, Washington, Helen Buell of Fremont, California, Walter Mottaz of Spokane, lone Hammon of Spokane and Leona West of Lewiston, Idaho. All of her sisters and brother lived for some years at Rudyard.

Forty-seven direct descendants survived Margaret Heintz. This includes 23 living grandchildren and 17 living great grandchildren. Her granddaughter and grandson, Doreen and Dan Heintz have operated the family farm at Moccasin for the past four years.

Heintz was a life-long member of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod and was active in the Moccasin Women's Club until moving to Lewistown. She was an amateur painter and superb family historian, recalling names and relevant historical dates of all occasions on both her side of the family and her husband. Five hours of taped interviews with her, covering the family's history, will be given to the Montana Historical Society Museum in Helena.

Funeral services were held in Lewistown August 3, 1985.

RUTH ROCKMAN ISH
Born: November 5, 1905 - Died: September 24, 1985
Liberty County Times
October 3, 1985

Ruth Rockman was born in Chicago, Illinois November 5th, 1905. Her parents were Chris ("C.I.") Rockman and Helga (Johnson) Rockman. There were ten children in the family. They came to Montana in 1908 and bought the Grand Hotel in Chester. Ruth started school in Chester, but transferred to the Trommer country school near Eagle Creek when her family moved to a homestead there in 1912.

In addition to farming, the Rockman family ran a little country store (which was located near the present Arlo Skari farm). Ruth started high school at Lothair, but later graduated from Chester High School in 1925. While attending school in Chester she participated in tennis, basketball and baseball.

May 20th, 1925 Ruth married Bennie C. Ish in Havre. In the few years that followed, they lived in various towns along the hi-line as Ben worked as a telegraph operator for the Great Northern Railroad. In 1928 they bought a home in Chester. They lived together there until Ben's death in 1955.

Ruth had begun working for the postal department in 1953 and was appointed as Chester's postmaster in 1955. She worked that job until her retirement in 1971. She remained in her Chester home until 1979 when she moved into the Sweetgrass Lodge. Because of failing health, she moved to the Liberty County Nursing Home a few months ago. Following a short stay in the Chester Hospital, she died the evening of Tuesday, September 24th. Ruth was just a few months shy of being 80 years old.

Ruth joined the Eastern Star in 1942, was a charter member of the American Legion Auxiliary, and also held membership in the V.F.W. Auxiliary. She became actively involved in the Chester Royal Neighbor group in 1929. The R.N.A. club was very important to her, and she missed very few meetings over the years. She held most every office in the R.N.A. and served as the State Oracle from 1958-61. Ruth attended several national conventions, some of which were in Denver, Los Angeles, Miami, Atlantic City and Seattle. Not only did she enjoy the fraternal comradery of R.N.A., but also the many social events and opportunities to express her love for the community.

Ruth was also a faithful Christian. Of interest was the fact that she was the first parishioner baptized in Our Savior's Lutheran Parish here in Chester. After she was married, she began attending the Methodist Church. Not only was she active in the Ladies Aide, she also taught Sunday School for 20 years and assisted with the M.Y.F. program. Ruth loved people, but had a special fondness for children. Although life had not always been good to her, she never faltered from her happy, optimistic attitude. She was a kind, caring person who never spoke evil of anyone. For this, and much more, she will be greatly missed...

MAYNARD M. JOHNSON
Born: September 23, 1919 - Died: December 13, 1985
Liberty County Times
December 19, 1985

Maynard Martin Johnson was born on his family's homestead located northeast of Chester, Montana. He was one of ten children born to Marie Ethel Emerson and Arthur Karl Johnson. Maynard was baptized and confirmed Lutheran. He attended the Meldrum school near the farm. Following his formal education, Maynard worked on various farms and ranches in Liberty County. In 1940 he enlisted in the U.S. Army and served in the 11th Infantry Division in the Aleutians, Rhineland, Ardennes, and Central Europe. After achieving the rank of sergeant, he was honorably discharged in 1945. Maynard returned to Montana and began ranching the old home place. He remained a bachelor until October 5th, 1966, when he married Cletus Wright Brandvold in Chester. They made their home in Chester and continued farming northeast of town until ill-health forced his retirement in September of 1984. Following a lingering illness, Maynard died peacefully in his home the morning of December 13th. He was 66 years old.

Maynard had been a member of the Bethel Church for many years and had served on the church council. He was also a member of the Chester V.F.W. Post #3996. He was an avid fisherman and had done some hunting in his earlier years. He enjoyed raising a large vegetable garden each year and always shared his corn with his friends and neighbors. Maynard had picked a lot of field rock in his lifetime and had selected a collection of unusual shapes and sizes. He was a fan of Western music. He loved all animals, but was especially fond of dogs and cats. Although he never had children of his own, he was a "natural" with kids and those who knew him respected him. At family gatherings he was one of the first ones to the table to play a board game. Maynard was an excellent stockman; he loved his cattle and was always concerned for their comfort. He was also a good horseman, and had worked hard in those early days when it came to herding and moving cattle. In his quiet hours Maynard enjoyed reading; he liked magazines of all kinds and read from the Bible each night before retiring to bed. He was a reserved, private-type individual, and this was exemplified in the fact that he had kept a daily diary dating back to 1945. Maynard was a very contented and happy man, especially since his marriage to Cletus (of interest is that family and close friends affectionately called them "Arnold and Hank"). Maynard leaves behind many special friends with many special memories.

1918 Chester newspaper publisher dies

Cecil T. Kavanaugh, a former newspaper editor in Chester, passed away recently in Kalispell at the age of 89.

Kavanaugh was part of a partnership that published a forerunner to the Liberty County Times, the Chester Democrat.

A member of one of Montana's long-time newspaper publishing families, Kavanaugh joined with Henry O. Woare in purchasing the Democrat from D.P. VanHorne April 5, 1918.

Kavanaugh was listed as editor of the paper but sold out his interest to Woare after just three months.

Kavanaugh's father founded the Galata Journal in 1910 and founded other newspapers, including the Devon Register, Lothair Ledger and Dunkirk Times, all short-lived publications that thrived from early requirements that all homesteading proving-up claims be published.

Kavanaugh was editor of the Devon paper at the age of 16.

The family sold its Montana interests and Kavanaugh worked as a printer at several towns in Montana, North Dakota, Washington, Oregon and Alaska, before the family bought the Shelby Promoter in 1927.

He was a printer for several years at the Daily Interlake in Kalispell until that newspaper converted to off-set type in the late 1960s. He chose to retire then, but did part-time work for Mel Ruder, publisher of the Hungry Horse News in Columbia Falls.

But at the age of 71, Kavanaugh decided to take on full time work again. He accepted a job with O'Neill Printing in Kalispell, specializing in hot metal type.

After finally retiring in 1980, he tried his hand at writing, publishing a history about early Montana newspapermen, a book on fishing and an autobiography.

A nephew, John Kavanaugh, still runs the family publishing business, which includes newspapers in Shelby, Cut Bank, Browning and Kalispell.
Funeral held for Bob Keith

Robert Jay Keith was born in Redwing, Minnesota April 5th, 1924. He was one of four children born to Hazel Violet Staudacher and Devall "Shorty" Keith. Bob was baptized in the Methodist parish. He grew up in Chester and attended schools here. While in high school he participated in basketball and played the trumpet in the band. He graduated in 1943. For several years Bob worked for Walt Hensley at the Havre Airport. During the war years he helped his dad in the service station business in Chester and also farmed the Russell Keith place south of town. November 8th, 1947 he married Helen Brandvold in Chester. Bob eventually took over Keith's Conoco & Bulk Plant, the business he operated until 1965. At that time, they moved to Great Falls where Bob purchased the Holiday Village Texaco Station on 10th Avenue. He operated that business for the next 4-5 years, then bought interest in a tire retread shop in Black Eagle. The business was named U.G.M. Tire Company, as they specialized in underground mining equipment tires. In fact, Bob patented a special retreading process which involved the manufacture of these big tires using an off-set procedure. Bob continued with U.G.M. until 1981, when he sold his interests and the company transferred to Salt Lake City. In 1982 Bob was recruited by the International Nickel Corporation to go to Indonesia and help them set up a retreading shop there. Shortly after his return to Montana, he suffered a stroke, and his health has deteriorated since. Even so, Bob continued to be independent in his Great Falls residence. He died peacefully at home the afternoon of Tuesday, March 12th. Bob would have been 61 years old next month.

While in Chester, Bob had been active in Commercial Club and Rotary. He had been one of the early promoters for the development of the Chester swimming pool. He loved basketball, and kept active in it not only as a spectator, but also as a high school referee. His hobbies included hunting and fishing, and he enjoyed traveling in his motor home. Since his retirement, his outdoor activities were pretty limited, but he did enjoy gardening. Bob loved people and places, and was a great entertainer and socializer. He liked to laugh and have a good time and exchange a story or two. He enjoyed life...

James J. Morrison was born in northern Scotland September 8th, 1904. He was the second of eleven children born to Mary Milne and Arthur G. Morrison. Jim's father came to the United States in 1910 and took a job on the Laird ranch north of Chester. His father also homesteaded near Mount Lily in the Sweetgrass Hills and served as a mail carrier. Jim's mother and the children came to the U.S. in 1913. Jim finished his schooling at the Laird country school. In the years that followed, he worked for numerous ranchers in the Sweetgrass Hills. Jimmy bought a small "spread" near Whitlash in 1935. He lived and worked in the cattle business there until 1942, when he was inducted into the U.S. Army. The following year he was honorably discharged and returned to Montana. He sold his little ranch in 1947 and took employment at the Prescott ranch. When the Prescott's sold out in the early 1950's, Jimmy bought a portion of their land. He made his home there from that time on.

His health had been good up until three years ago. Jim died at the Chester Hospital the morning of Wednesday, January 30th, at the age of 80 years.

Jim was your basic Montana "cowboy." He loved horses and cattle, and spent his entire life in the ranching business. Although he ran a relatively small cattle feedlot, he was well-known by cattlemen throughout Montana. Jim was a self-taught veterinarian, and did a lot of vet work for community ranchers in those early years. When it came to breaking and training horses, his skills were excellent. He helped produce many rodeos in Montana and also had performed in all phases of rodeo. Of interest is the fact that the last rodeo Jim was involved in was when he was 85 years old!

It's not surprising that he was hired by Liberty County as foreman of the wild horse roundup in 1929. In addition to his cowboy abilities, he was an excellent sheep shearer and a great trapper. In his youth he did some amateur boxing and played baseball, and he remained an avid sports enthusiast throughout the years. Jim was a member of the Montana Stockgrowers Association and was very proud of his Montana heritage. He liked people and people liked him.

Jim never married. His survivors include three brothers, Arthur of Chester, John of Whitlash, and Francis of Davenport, Washington; five sisters, Lily Murray of Scotland, Mabel Getz of Helena, Violet Racine of Medford, Oregon, Margaret Sarrazin of Livingstone, and Lucy Lakey of Chester; and numerous nephews and nieces. Jim was preceded in death by his father in 1952, his mother in 1957, and by two sisters (Kathleen and Mary).

Funeral services were held at 11:00 a.m. Monday, February 4th, at the Chester United Methodist Church. The Reverend Grover Briggs of Shelby officiated, and he was assisted by the Reverend Nancy Wright of Chester. Special music by members of St. Mary's guitar group included "Beyond the Sunset," "The Old Rugged Cross," and "Home on the Range." Eulogist was Rlynn Rockman. Pallbearers included Robert Pugsley, Bob Nordstrom, George and Joe Meissner, Dick Burrows, Bill Cole, and Claude Demarest. Ushers were George Braun and B.J. Oswood. Memorial bearers included a special friend, "Edwin" Cole, and nephews, Doug Getz, Donald and Jim Price, Tom Lakey, Danny and Bobby Sarrazin, and Robert, Benj, Clarence and Kenny Morrison. Burial was in the Chester Cemetery with arrangements by Rockman Chapel, Chester. Following graveside services, a luncheon was held at the church for family and friends.
Mavis Marie McCormick was born in Lewistown, Montana on March 19, 1952. She was one of five children born to Ida Mork and William McCormick. As an infant she came to Joplin with her family, where she was baptized and later confirmed at the Bethel Lutheran Church. Mavis attended Joplin Schools. While in high school she participated in track, annual staff, and school newspaper. She also worked in the student secretarial pool under Dave James during the 1970 State Legislature in Helena. Mavis graduated from Joplin High School in 1970 and then attended Great Falls Vo-Tech for a short time. She accepted a bookkeeper job for Ryan Wholesale in Havre and later worked there as a clerk for the Federal Crop Insurance office. On July 21, 1973 she married Carl LeRoy Olson at the Bethel Church in Joplin. They have made their home in Havre, where Mavis kept busy as a housewife and Carl worked for the railroad. Mavis contracted hepatitis about a year ago and has suffered complications since. She died at the Billings Deaconess Hospital on the evening of Sunday, October 13. She was just 33 1/2 year old.

Mavis had many hobbies. She was a very talented cake decorator and enjoyed making hand-crafted items. She did some sewing and crocheting, and was a good cook. While in Havre, she played in the women's softball league and also participated in volleyball. Her favorite spectator sport was basketball and her favorite color was purple. Mavis enjoyed camping, working in her garden, and decorating her house. She also was an amateur pianist and like to sing. She was a very concerned mother and friend, and for this her memory will live on.

Survivors include her husband, Carl of Havre; 2 daughters, Shannon and Michelle; mother, Ida McCormick of Joplin; 2 brothers, Russell of Stevensville and Bill of Billings; 2 sisters, Denise Tempel of Joplin and Janice Mlinar of Billings; and numerous uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, and cousins. Mavis was preceded in death by her father, Bill, in 1981.

Funeral services were held on Friday, October 18 at 1:00 p.m. at the Bethel Church in Joplin. Reverend K. David Gabrielson of Havre officiated. When with family and friends, Pete was always anxious for a good card game, and was especially fond of cribbage and whist. Pete loved working his farm and feeding his cows. He liked being active and maintained a good sense of humor, and this probably attributed to his long, healthy life.

Funeral held for Gustav Robo

Gus Robo was born in Belvue, Canada on April 6th, 1910. His parents were Gustav Roboweitra and Emma Selg, and he was one of three children. His parents had immigrated from Estonia to Canada, where his father worked in the coal mines beginning in 1908. In 1910 his father filed a homestead deed 10 miles northwest of Chester. Following his father's death in a coal mine accident in 1911, the family came to the homestead in Montana. Emma and the children milked cows, churned butter, and sold the products to make ends meet. Gus attended schools near the farm and in Chester. In the years that followed, Gus and his brother operated a "trapline" and worked for various farmers in the Liberty County community. Gus had worked for Ida Kerr, Frank Laird and Harry Hodges, and also had a mail route north of town. November 1st, 1935 he married Frances E. Hodges in Havre. The following year they purchased a farm north of Joplin. In addition to farming there, he ran a trucking business (he hauled coal) and operated a small service station on the farm. Gus and Frances lived and worked on the farm until 1972, when Gus had a health setback. Since then he has been semi-retired. In 1981 they moved to a new home in Chester. The past few months Gus' physical condition had weakened. He died in the Chester Hospital following a two-week stay on the morning of Sunday, January 13th. Gus was 74 years old.

Gus had been a member of the Joplin Commercial Club and had served on the Liberty County Hospital Board in past years. He was confirmed as an adult at the Emmanuel Church in the early 1940's. In his younger days he enjoyed hunting coyotes and birds, but his favorite pastime was fishing. He spent countless hours on the lake, sometimes in undesirable weather, trying to hook that elusive "big one." Gus also enjoyed gardening and especially liked to raise vegetables and strawberries. For exercise since his retirement, he chopped a lot of wood for their indoor stove.

In his quiet hours he enjoyed watching the news and weather on TV. Gus and Frances had made many annual trips to Hot Springs, Montana where they enjoyed soaking in the mineral baths. Gus had developed a coffee made from wheat and barley products, and he was very proud of a plaque awarded to him in 1977 by the Chester Lions Club for his continuing efforts in the development of alternate uses of Montana agricultural products. Gus was a good neighbor and friend, and had an undying love for his family.

Survivors include his wife, Frances of Chester; two sons and daughters-in-law, Jerry and Eunice of Fort Benton and David and Jean of north Joplin; six grandchildren, James, Jeff, Tom, Brian, David and Justin; one sister, Renette Roboweitra of Minneapolis; and numerous nephews and nieces. Gus was preceded in death by his parents (father in 1911 and mother in 1924), a daughter (Violet in 1960), and a brother (Ferdinand in 1981).

Following is a poem written by son, David, and family friend, Helen McCann, in memory of Gus:

We had no fear...
His likeness stamped on his brow.
The long road he has trod...
He resides in Glory now.
Although our tears still run and our hearts are sorely riven,
Our father is now a gem
in "Our Savior's Cross", residing now another soul in heaven.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, January 16th, at the Bethel Lutheran Church in Joplin with Reverend John N. Olson officiating. Friend eulogizes Kevin Rugtvedt

This eulogy was written and presented by Mr. Ed Hahn of Idaho Falls, Idaho. He is Charlie Rugtvedt's closest friend. This was delivered at the memorial service for Kevin before his remains were sent to Everett, Washington for funeral and interment.

Kevin Rugtvedt

Kevin Michael Rugtvedt, 20, died Friday, October 18, 1985 at his home in Idaho Falls of causes related to epilepsy.

He was born September 10, 1965 at Everett, Washington, the son of Linda Seeber and Charles Rugtvedt. He spent his childhood at Everett, graduating from Mariner High School in 1983.

He worked for K-Mart in Everett until April 1984 when he moved to Idaho Falls to work for Valley Bank. He liked outdoor sports very much and was active in baseball, golfing and skiing. He was a member of Hope Lutheran Church.

This is how the newspaper remembered Kevin. This is how I chose to remember him.

I first met Kevin when he was 15 or 16. He and his sister, Jeri Lynn, came to visit their dad during summer vacation. His dad, Chuck, is a special friend with whom I and my family have had many great capers.

From the first time that tall lanky kid strode into our home, Janice and I took a special liking to him. He always had that big wide grin on his face that so many of you had come to know. I doubt if I ever saw him at his worst. He was so even tempered. To my recollection, the only real fault he had was the way he kept his bedroom. And boy that was bad.

Kevin loved sports, especially baseball, golf and skiing. He played city league softball for Valley Bank and Software Galeria.

He had recently taken up golf and in no time at all, he could outplay his dad. But then come to think of it, I've beaten his dad once or twice myself and I don't even know the game very well.

One day Kevin was out in his back yard throwing a Frisbee to his dog Ginger. Now, Ginger is a fat, slow-moving Irish Setter who would rather roll over and play dead than run and fetch. But, on this particular day, she was doing a good job of catching Kevin's Frisbee.

I was watching then and, feeling a little frisky myself, I decided to join in the fun. Well, that's all the excuse Ginger needed. She ambled off to lay in the shade while I chased that darn Frisbee. After many frustrating minutes of trying to catch the Frisbee, Kevin suggested we stop for a rest. I remarked about how lazy that fat dog was. Yeh, said Kevin, but at least she can catch a Frisbee.

Kevin and Chuck often went camping with Janice and me. We would always take a hike up some steep mountain trail. Of course, long-legged Kevin was always out in front, leading us on to victory over that steep trail. One time, Janice tried to keep up with him and her short legs and middle-aged body darn near caused her to have a coronary.

One thing we learned about Kevin and camping. The fresh outdoors did something to his metabolism causing his appetite to explode. He'd eat us out of camper and cooler.

And after the sun went down, Kevin and Chuck and the rest of us would retreat to the camp trailer and play cards. Kevin would usually skunk us all.
Luella Susan Ganser was born January 9th, 1910 near Cleveland, North Dakota. She was one of four children born to Martin and Anna (Lence) Ganser. Her family farmed, so Luella attended rural schools. She completed her high school education at St. John’s Academy in Jamestown, graduating in 1928. Luella was given a teaching certificate, so she taught at country schools in North Dakota in the years 1928-1934. During that same time-span, she attended summer school at the State Teacher’s College at Valley City and earned her degree in 1932. Luella came to Montana in 1935, and for the next seven years taught at the Erickson school south of Chester. In 1940 the State of Montana granted her an Elementary Life Teaching Certificate. She was 75 years old.

Luella had been active in St. Mary’s Church and the Altar Society. She was always anxious to help with church projects - be it cleaning and yardwork, assisting with special luncheons, or teaching Catechism. Although Luella never had children of her own, she loved young people, and was known affectionately by many as “Aunt Luella.” For many years she gave financial support to young priests in seminary school, to mission orphans, and to other needy children. Luella loved the community and participated whenever she could. She enjoyed watching high school sports, especially when her nephews and nieces were active. She was an excellent cook and loved to entertain. In her younger years she liked dancing and fishing, and in her later years kept active in her garden.

Luella loved playing cards, and was especially fond of duplicate bridge. Her kindness and gentle personality were a tribute to her life...

Liberty County Times

April 4, 1985

Louise Christine Heyen was born in Bayless, Illinois September 1st, 1896. She was one of seven children born to John Heyen and Elizabeth Haterdorn. Louise grew up and attended schools in the Dorchester, Illinois community. She later went to Kansas, and then to Colorado, where she worked as a housekeeper in hotels and private homes. She began writing to a Montana homesteader named Gus Tempel. They corresponded for quite some time before he finally proposed. Louise came to Montana by train June 23rd, 1917. Gus met the train in Havre, and they were married there that same day. They made their home at Gus’ farm, which was located in the Alma community 20 miles northwest of Joplin. Because the crops were bad those first few years, they traveled to and from Everett, Washington where Gus worked for the railroad. In the spring of 1921, they returned to the farm to stay. They lead an interesting life, as most homesteaders did, and simply grew with the land. They purchased their first car in 1923, and their first trip in it was to the Dempsey-Gibbons fight in Shelby. They bought their first farm truck in 1929, and two years later they traded in their eight horses for their first tractor. They loved and worked the farm until Gus’ death in 1943. Louise remained on the farm until 1947, then moved to Great Falls. She has lived at 1812 - 1st Ave. So. since that time. Louise died at home the afternoon of Wednesday, March 20th. In addition, she played the piano, liked flower gardening, and enjoyed crocheting. In her quiet hours she loved to read, and was especially fond of historical novels, Biblical literature, and the Chester newspaper.

Although her education was minimal, she was a great “storehouse of knowledge,” and she kept up with the times. Louise liked to travel and spend time with family and friends. She loved her grandchildren and was very understanding where they were concerned. Although her life had its share of trials and tribulations, she never complained and always kept an even temperament. She will be missed by many.

Valborg G. Zentzis, 75, of Inverness, died of a heart attack Tuesday morning at the Liberty County Nursing Home in Chester. She was born on August 29, 1909 in Nekoma, North Dakota to Margit Joplin and Hans Tollefson and moved to their farm north of Rudyard in 1911.

Val was the oldest of five children, and along with her brothers and sisters, attended the Oreana country school until she went to Rudyard High School and was graduated as salutatorian of the class of 1928. She had a special fondness for all the little creatures of the prairie and frequently befriended pet skunks, snakes and frogs during her early school years.

On New Years Day, 1933, she married Clifford Zentzis of Inverness and lived on the family farm until earlier this year when she moved to the Liberty County Nursing Home. She was a 4-H leader for 14 years guiding her daughter, Cheryl Causey, now of Burke, Virginia, and son, Roger of Inverness, in their various projects. She was a member of the Bethel Lutheran Church at Joplin and spent many years as the Sunday School secretary. She also worked for several years on quilting projects and Circle activities until her arthritis made it impossible to continue.

At the Liberty County Nursing Home, Val was affectionately known as "Smiley" because her happy eyes and smile were constantly shared with everyone.

Survivors include her husband, Clifford of Inverness; daughter, Cheryl Causey of Burke, Virginia; son, Roger of Inverness, two sisters, Signe Johnson of Great Falls and Inga Miller of Havre; two brothers, Alfred Tollefson of Rudyard and Harold Tollefson of Santa Barbara, California; two granddaughters, Stefanie and Christina Causey of Virginia; and numerous nephews and nieces.

Funeral services were held at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, August 31st, at the Joplin Bethel Church with Reverend John N. Olson officiating. The congregation sang "In Heaven Above" and "I Know of a Sleep in Jesus' Name", accompanied by Thelma Anderson on the organ. Pallbearers included Rodney and Merlyn Miller, Calvin and Alfred Tollefson, Chris Frederickson, and Milton Haaland. Users were Bub Poppler and Dave James.

Following the services, a luncheon for family and friends was held in Kjos Hall. That same afternoon at 2:00 p.m., graveside services were held at the Highland Cemetery in Havre. Funeral arrangements were by Rockman Chapel, Chester. A memorial fund is being established to Bethel Church and the Liberty County Nursing Home.
