George Clink

George had been a member of the Joplin Masonic Lodge and the local Farmer's Union. He frequently attended the Goldstone Lutheran Church north of Rudyard with Betsy, who served as church organist for many years. They married late in life and had no children, so they spent their winter months traveling and visiting with relatives in the southern states. George enjoyed hunting, fishing and boating. In those early years he liked to dance to the Polka and he enjoyed playing cards (especially whist). His whole life revolved around farming and farm mechanics. He enjoyed many simple pleasures of life, like caring for the farm cats or picking fruit from his apple and plum trees. In his quiet hours at home, George liked to read (he was especially fond of westerns, detective and sports magazines, and current events). Although his hearing and sight failed in recent years, he felt fortunate to live a long life and still retain good mental capacity.

George's survivors include his wife, Betsy of the Liberty County Nursing Home in Chester; a sister, Mrs. Clive (Lillian) Owens of Inverness; and several nephews and nieces. He was preceded in death by his parents and two sisters (Minnie Uhrhammer and Lucille Latham).

Funeral services are scheduled for Wednesday, February 15th, 2:00 p.m. at the Rockman Funeral Chapel in Chester. Reverend Steve Nicolai of the Chester Lutheran Church will officiate. Special music by vocalist Wayne Wardell included "Old Rugged Cross" and "In The Garden". Organist was Iris White.

Friends serving as pallbearers are Ray Gulick, Wayne Wolery, Elmer Hadford, Sterling Wolery, Chuck Lineweaver and Olyn Wolery. Burial with military rites will be in the Chester Cemetery. A coffee hour given by friends in the Inverness community will follow the graveside services at the Lutheran Church in Chester.

JOHN DAMIEN DOLEZAL
Born: November 18, 1913 - Died: October 30, 1989

Liberty County Times

November 8, 1989

John was a member of St. Mary's Church in Chester and also a member of the Knights of Columbus. He had been a county school trustee for 25 years, of which six years were served on the Chester School board. John also served as Liberty County Commissioner for 14 years. In 1976 he became a rural mail carrier on the Whitlash route, a job he kept until ill-health forced his retirement in 1988. In addition, he managed the Liberty County abandoned vehicle disposal program for many years, and maintained a large automobile graveyard at his farm.

John had many hobbies. He enjoyed playing whist, pinochle, rup-rummy, cribbage and other card games. He collected coins and liked to work on crossword puzzles. He enjoyed reading and was especially fond of newspapers and Louis L'Amour books. He loved bowling and was a member of the Chester, Rudyard and Shelby leagues for many years. He was an avid spectator fan of most every sport.

The central theme of John's life was his music. In his youth he helped transport a herd of cattle to Chicago, and it was there that he first took trumpet lessons. From that time on he learned to play the saxophone, accordion, piano and organ. He loved dancing, singing and performing. He played in bands during most of his adult life, and a local group he was most proud of was called "The Vagabonds". Many years ago John wrote and published a song entitled "Heaven on a Hilltop", and it was eventually recorded by Kate Smith.

John enjoyed his life as a farmer and rancher. He took great pride in the upkeep of his buildings, fences, land and equipment. He loved his family and never hesitated to brag about them. Because John only completed eight grades of school, he was very proud that all four of his children received college degrees. He had many interesting experiences and encounters during his lifetime, and up until this past year he had been diligently working on his autobiography for his children...

John's survivors include two sons and daughters-in-law, Gerald and Cheri of Kewanee, Illinois and Richard and Susan of Singapore; two daughters and sons-in-law, Jaci and Dick Frey of Chicago, Illinois and Jan Dell and Larry Nelson of Chester; six grandchildren, including Jeff, Julie, Danielle, Natasha, Michael and Kali; two brothers, Ben of Billings and Frank of Olivia, Minnesota; two sisters, Cecelia Rockman of Three Forks and Lillian Serbus of Olivia; and numerous nephews, nieces and cousins. John was preceded in death not only by his wife and parents, but also by one brother (Henry) and by three sisters (Mary, Beatrice and Rose "Sister Mary Francine").

Rosary services were held at the Rockman Funeral Chapel on Wednesday evening, November 1st. The funeral mass was celebrated by Father Frank Kelly of Chester and Monsignor Martin Werner of Belt at 11:00 a.m. Thursday at St. Mary's Church in Chester. Iris White was the organist and the St. Mary's choir sang "Father of Peace", "Be Not Afraid", and "On Eagle's Wings". A special vocal tribute by Tawna Meldrum, accompanied by Tammy Enghusen on the piano, was "Wind Beneath My Wings". Soloist, Jerome Lincoln, performed Johnnie's song, "Heaven on a Hilltop". Dear Grandpa:
Taking a deep breath...
I told myself to be strong,
As I listened to the message
That you were gone.

I felt a peace within
As I thought about you,
Remembering our time together
And your eyes of ocean blue.

All of our things
Are temporary here...
Even though you're gone
We will still feel you near.

We must love one another
With a love from within,
And learn to accept
And trust faithfully in Him.

For painting perfect pictures
Of how we want our life to be,
May lead to a wrong turn...
Far from our destiny.

I understand now and will miss you--
My grandfather and friend.
This is just the "beginning"--
Not the end...

Love, Your Granddaughter,
Jeani Francis Lyle

He attended the Big Springs and Minnesota country schools near the farm. His parents moved to Great Falls, so Norris finished his formal education there. He learned the brick laying trade from his father and during the next several years he worked in the construction business in Great Falls and the Hi-Line area. Norris began farming north of Joplin in 1935. He married Opal C. Wolery on March 30th, 1939 in Havre. They lived on the farm until 1955, then moved into Rudyard. Norris officially retired from farming in 1973. Following an extended illness, he passed away peacefully at his Rudyard home on the morning of Saturday, November 4th. He was just two weeks shy of being 81 years old.

Norris was a life long member of Our Savior's Lutheran Church and had served on the church council. He had also served on a rural school board for several years. After moving to Rudyard, he drove school bus there for 7-8 years and also ran a small shoe shop for about three years. In his younger years Norris enjoyed playing horseshoes and cards (especially cribbage). In more recent years he enjoyed the quiet solitude of doing needlework, string art, counted cross-stitching and macrame. He loved working with his hands and had constructed numerous grandfather and mantle clocks for his children. Norris liked to work outside, and his fruit trees and rose bushes were his pride and joy. During his quiet evenings at home he enjoyed watching sporting events on television or simply reading his Bible. Norris loved his family, especially his grandkids, and he became affectionately known as "Grandpa Honey". He loved to sing little songs to the grandkids and he taught them all a little Norwegian. At family functions he was always there with his camera. Norris and Opal had just celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary this past March. In addition to the six children of their own, they also cared for 13 foster children over the years...

Survivors include his wife, Opal of Rudyard; three sons, Donald of Great Falls, Robert of Rudyard, and Lyle of Rudyard; three daughters, Mrs. Donald (Shirley) Rudolph of Joplin, Mrs. Willis (Elaine) Hodges of Joplin, and Jean Stone of Chester; one brother, Gerhard of Castlerock, Washington; 18 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and numerous nephews and nieces. Norris was preceded in death by his parents, by one brother (Clifford), by two sisters (Geneva and Vivian), and by a grandchild (Tanya Stone).

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, November 6th, at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Rudyard. Reverend Jeff Olsgaard officiated and special readings were by Don Kelley. Since his retirement, he had been very active in the Senior Citizens group. He was past president of the Senior Citizens Center and served on the Board of Directors for 16 years. He also did janitorial and maintenance work at the center, and drove the center's bus for several years. He never missed a meeting while he served on the Advisory Council of the North Central Area Agency on Aging. He was very proud of the fact that he was awarded a plaque from the North Central Agency in 1988 as "Senior Citizen of the Year".

Harvey's favorite pasttimes included reading and playing cards (he was especially fond of pinochle). He spoke fluent Norwegian and enjoyed the quiet solitude of listening to Norwegian records. He also liked to do yardwork, and always had a vegetable and potato garden every year. Harvey had always been a handyman around the house, and always did his own carpentry and plumbing work. Ida was very proud of her Estonian heritage, but she became totally committed to her life here in the United States. RUTH BERTHA KINDSCHY
Born: ?, 1904 - Died: March 2, 1989
Liberty County Times
March 15, 1989

Ruth and Bertha Kindschy at a 75 year reunion and birthday party for Ruth on her 81st birthday in 1985.

Ruth Kindschy
Ruth Bertha Kindschy was born in 1904 in Groton, South Dakota. She was the 11th child of a family of six boys and six girls. John Casper Kindschy, her father, was married twice. However, his first wife, Pauline, who died after bearing five children was eventually replaced by Bertha, her sister, who was Ruth's mother.

The family of 11 children moved as homesteaders to Hingham, Montana in 1910. At that time Ruth was six years old and she remained on the homestead until August, 1974 when she rented the farm in Montana and moved to Rockwood Manor in Spokane, Washington. Ruth's life in Montana was very active. She was a member of the first graduating class of Hingham High School, 1924. The class consisted of four seniors - two boys and two girls. Ruth spent her life in Montana operating the family farm with two older brothers. She eventually was the sole owner of the farm. She was very active in 4-H work as an enthusiastic leader. She played the piano and organ for her church and Sunday school while her father was still living. She took care of her aging mother until her death at age 84. She also kept house for two of her older brothers who were operating the Montana farm with her.

With the help of her youngest brother she moved to Rockwood Manor in August, 1974. She was very pleased with her life in a retirement unit. In November of 1983 Ruth suffered a stroke. She was paralyzed on her left side but was able to continue her optimistic outlook on life until her death on March 2nd, 1989.

Ruth always loved children and left 15 nieces and nephews. She provided funds for day school programs in Spokane and had been a sponsor of the Intermountain Deaconess home for children in Helena, Montana.

On the lighter side of her life Ruth amazed the residents of Rockwood Manor by relating her experiences providing food for the large family in Montana. Butchering day consisted of the slaughter of three hogs and one beef. The meat was processed into hams, bacon, sausage and canned patties. This was before the era of the home freezer. She also could relate about the 40 degrees below zero weather that was often present in northern Montana winters.

Ruth passed away March 2, 1989 and is survived by one brother, Dwight Kindschy of Moscow, Idaho; numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by five brothers and five sisters. A Memorial service was held Monday, March 6th, 1989 at 1:30 p.m. at Rockwood Manor with the Rev. Walter Sauer officiating.

Ruth Kindschy was a very special person. The people she touched during her life will miss her. Many of her friends and relatives have a lovely afghan to help them remember her.

Her ashes will be laid to rest in the cemetery at Hingham, Montana along with three brothers, a sister, sister-in-law and a nephew. The graveside service is being planned for June 25th - the day of her birth 85 years ago.

Friends who wish may make memorial contributions to the Northwest Parent Co-Op, N4815 Driscoll Blvd., Spokane, WA 99205 or Intermountain Deaconess Home for Children, P.O. Box 4455, Helena, MT 59604.

Luvina remained in Rudyard until 1986, when she moved to the Sweetgrass Lodge in Chester. Because of failing health in the following year, she transferred to the Liberty County Nursing Home. Luvina had been a longtime member of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Rudyard, taught Sunday school for several years, and served as past president of the Ladies Aid. She enjoyed working in her vegetable garden or the quiet solitude of embroidery and crocheting. Luvina loved to sing and play the organ. Her skills as a homemaker were excellent. She loved cooking and baking, and preparing for a family picnic was always a treat for her. Not only did the word "Grandma" mean love, it also brought wonderful memories of "good cookies and good food". Luvina was always a care giver, placing others before herself. Luvina will always be remembered by her family as a loving, caring and prayerful Mother and Grandmother.

John Albert Olson was born in Champion, Alberta, Canada on November 23rd, 1910. He was one of four children born to Evelina Johansen and John Olson. The family came to Montana in 1912 and homesteaded north of Joplin near the Canadian border. Albert grew up on the farm and attended the Minnesota and Tingdahl country schools near there. Following his formal education, Albert began working as a mechanic at Mike Meyers Implement in Inverness. He also drilled water wells in the north country for several years with Art Stewart. On January 20th, 1936 he married Julia M. Johnson in Havre. The following year they began farming the Roveriet place located 12 miles northwest of Joplin. In 1946 they purchased the Herb Rolph farm four miles northwest of Joplin. Their sons took over the Joplin farming operations in 1964, so Albert and Julia moved to a farm at Bracken, Saskatchewan. After eight years in Canada, they sold the farm, retired, and moved back to their farm home near Joplin. Albert's health has been relatively good over the years. This past February he was diagnosed with cancer. Following a month's stay in the Liberty County Hospital in Chester, he died on the early morning of Monday, September 4th. Albert was 78 years old.

Albert had been baptized as an infant in Canada. During his early years in Montana, he attended the Immanuel Church north of Joplin. He later transferred his membership to the Bethel Church in Joplin, where he completed adult confirmation classes.

Albert's hobbies included reading, working cross-word puzzles, and playing cards. He also enjoyed mechanical and carpentry projects around the farm. In his younger years he liked fishing and hunting. He loved to drive around the countryside to admire the fine crops and pasturelands of the community.

Albert had a special love for the Sweetgrass Hills and often spoke of the "good old days" when he and his brother panned gold in the hills. Albert was also a self-taught saxophone player and was proud to have been a member of the old Joplin Community Band.

Albert was essentially a homebody, but did enjoy traveling once they got out on the road. He and Julia spent several winters in Arizona and also shared other memorable trips together. Their life together was a happy one and they would have celebrated their 54th anniversary this coming January...

In addition to Julia, Albert is survived by two sons and their wives, Larry and Nancy and Leonard and Linda, all of Joplin; by one daughter and her husband, Deanna and Ray Standiford of Chester; by eight grandchildren (including Scott, Todd, Heidi, Greg, Grant, Chad, Jolene and Adam); by five great-grandchildren; by one cousin, Helen Johnson of Stavely, Alberta; and by numerous nephews and nieces.
